School is disrupted after raid attempt

VANDALS smashed through glass doors at a Burntwood primary school, leaving the building covered in blood and forcing areas to close for deep cleaning.

Highfields Primary, in Elder Lane, was forced to close its Little Owls nursery following the break-in, along with parts of its Key Stage 1 area.

Headteacher Mark Wilkes said it had been "devastating". He added: "The place was covered in blood so they obviously cut themselves on the way in. It's caused disruption to a number of classes.

Security

"The important thing is making sure the kids are safe and it's demonstrated to us that our security is pretty good. As far as we are aware nothing has been taken."

The offender also pulled a bell and alarm panel from the wall and tried to use a bird table to smash windows in an attempt to enter other parts of the building.

Police are appealing for witnesses to Saturday's incident, which took place between 9pm and 9.45pm.

Mr Wilkes said he hoped all areas would be reopened by yesterday (Wednesday).

Anyone with information should call 101, quoting incident number 758.

Last day of superstore

A BUDGET supermarket in Cannock is closing its doors this weekend. Lidl in Church Street will close on Saturday (March 23).

Workers have been told they will be relocated to other Lidl stores.

Spokesman Clare Norman said: "Lidl are actively searching for suitable locations within Staffordshire to build new larger Lidl stores capable of offering the local community the high level and quality shopping experience they require."

Building work under way on supermarket in town

The Tesco store in Rugeley under construction

CONSTRUCTION work has started on the new Tesco superstore in Rugeley, which could create up to 250 jobs.

Workers began clearing the former Celcon Blockworks site on Power Station Road last week in preparation for building to commence on the 40,000 sq ft store.

The store, which is expected to open in September, will feature a separate restaurant, petrol station and free parking for up to three hours.

The council gave planning permission for the supermarket just over two years ago, but building has been delayed while other projects in Stafford and Hednesford were completed.

Jonathan Simpson, corporate affairs manager for Tesco, said: "We will begin advertising jobs in June, by which time the store frame will have been erected.

"There will be a full range of jobs available and we are very pleased to be investing in Rugeley at the current time."

Council chiefs hope the supermarket will bring more people into the town, creating revenue for businesses in the area and jobs for residents.

Councillor George Adamson, leader of Cannock Chase Council said: "This is excellent news and a major boost for Rugeley. The investment will help with unemployment in the area, with up to 75 positions going to previously unemployed people through a training programme to be implemented by Tesco Partnerships in conjunction with the Job Centre and the Council."

As part of a section 106 agreement, the Council also received just under £600,000 to improve local services.

This includes enhancements to cycle and footpath links, bus services, and the cycleway between the store and the Eastern bypass.

CRYING FOUL OVER WASTE PLANT BID

by Will Ackermann

CONTROVERSIAL plans for a biomass plant have come under fire from villagers and councillors.

They say the renewable energy facility would produce foul odours and devalue homes surrounding the proposed site on Cocksparrow Lane, in Huntington.

Sarah Marshall, of Lupin Drive, has collected more than 80 signatures for a petition opposing the plans. In a letter to neighbouring residents, she said: "This will not only devalue our properties and make it an unpleasant area to live in, but also has the potential to cause traffic congestion due to the increase in large delivery vehicles."

County council planning bosses originally approved plans to build the plant in 2010, under the condition they were followed through within three years.

Waste management firm HE Humphries Ltd has now renewed its application in a bid for more time while talks are held with third parties. The company already uses the site for green waste composting. Huntington parish council and South Staffs District plan to formally object to the plans.

Site owner David Humphries said the proposed 30,000 sq ft facility would only be used to generate electricity by burning wood chippings. He added it would not produce any smells and that it would decrease congestion as wood waste would no longer be transported from the site. A decision is due to be reached by May 14.

Chase Eyecare, which has a branch in Market Street, has clubbed together with the Friends' group to organise The Giant Neighbourhood Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday March 30 at 11am.

Easter eggs are up for grabs if the hunters can find the hidden treasure.

Gnarly Cycles and Tesco are supporting the event by donating eggs.

Chase Eyecare is also organising an Easter egg decorating colouring competition for children with a host of prizes to be won.

Entry forms are available at the Hednesford and Cannock branches.

Friends chairman Lynn Evans said: "Hednesford Park is a lovely location for an Easter egg hunt and I think the children will really enjoy it."

Ivy House now given a stay of execution

A FORMER Cannock hospital earmarked for demolition has been spared from the bulldozers – for now.

Ivy House in Wolverhampton Road was due to be knocked down under proposals from Staffordshire County Council.

But the authority has temporarily withdrawn its plans for apartments, a doctor's surgery and a cafe at the 143-year-old former workhouse and hospital after more than 1,000 residents signed a petition against the proposal.

Benefits

County councillor Pat Corfield, who had claimed the building was costing taxpayers £100,000 a year to maintain, said: "Last Tuesday we met with residents at Ivy House. We thought it important to explain the benefits of the scheme and the options available but at the same time listening to their views.

"By Friday we had decided to temporarily withdraw Ivy House from the planning application so we can gather further views from local residents.

Labour councillor Alison Spicer welcomed the decision. Speaking at Cannock Community Forum on Tuesday, she said: "I pay tribute to the petitioners. I have said all along that the Ivy House should not be demolished."

Trust chief steps down

THE Chief executive of Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust is retiring after less than two years in the post.

Lyn Hill-Tout will leave the trust, which runs Cannock and Stafford Hospitals, at the end of May. She started in June 2011.

The announcement comes just weeks after the trust was found to be clinically and financially unsustainable by health watchdog Monitor.

College a springboard to success

A FORMER student who launched her own business in Cannock has been recognised by her college for her achievements.

June Laing, aged 52, opened La Minky, in Watling Street, Hatherton, after studying beauty therapy at South Staffordshire College's Cannock campus.

She is one of three of graduates to be specially congratulated by the college.

Ms Laing, from Penkridge, had dreamed of becoming a hairdresser, but due to financial pressures studied to become a dental nurse before moving into a more lucrative career in property.

She eventually decided to return to the college to study Beauty Therapy Levels 2 and 3 and obtain a hairdressing qualification.

She said: "When I decided to go back to study, I chose the college because of the location and I knew they catered for mature-aged students as well as young people."

Since opening the salon, Ms Laing has employed two beauty therapy students from the college.

Benefits cheat wrongly claimed more than £18k

A BENEFITS cheat wrongly claimed more than £18,000 in payments in just over two years after failing to declare his job as a driver.

Cannock magistrates heard Reginald Osborn, from Rugeley, began claiming pension credit and council tax benefit in July 2009, but three months later started work as a self-employed driver for W.D.Cooper's in Cannock.

The court heard the 64-year-old failed to tell both the Department of Work and Pensions and Cannock Chase District Council of his new job and carried on claiming benefits, which were paid directly into his bank account.

In interview, when the offences came to light last year, he denied making claims.

Osborn was overpaid £15,791 in pension credits and £2,280 in council tax benefit, the bench was told.

He also went on to work for another company as a driver and was paid cash in hand.

Property

Rob Perry, defending, said Osborn had voluntarily started repaying the amount at the rate of £17 a week from his pension credits. He was no longer able to work due to arthritis in his right hand.

Mr Perry said: "The claim has been going on for a few years and his property is now up for sale. There is a buyer and he intends to make good the repayments when it is sold."

The total overpayment amounted to £18,071.

Osborn, of Catkin Walk, Rugeley, pleaded guilty to two charges of failing to notify the relevant authorities of a change in circumstances in respect of his benefit payments between November 2009 and February 2012.

He was sent to Stafford Crown Court for sentence on a date to be set. The magistrates granted him unconditional bail.

Quiz should raise funds for Newlife Foundation

A PENKRIDGE auction house is hosting a charity quiz in aid of a children's charity.

The Cannock-based Newlife Foundation funds equipment for disabled and sick children and will benefit from the quiz, arranged by Cuttlestones. It starts at 7pm next Wednesday, March 27, at the Peace Memorial Hall in Penkridge.

To book tickets, call 01785 714905, or people can email office@cuttlestones.co.uk or go into Cuttlestones' Pinfold Lane auction room to get more details.

Head auctioneer Ben Gamble said: "Quiz evenings are always fun and a good way of raising funds, so we thought it would be the ideal way to kick-start our fundraising campaign for the Newlife Foundation.

"The ticket price includes a fish and chip supper and there will be a licensed bar on site, so it should be a great night out for those who are serious quiz contenders and teams just looking for a good evening's entertainment."

The Newlife Foundation helps disabled and terminally ill children across the UK.

Artwork brightens hospital

Ann Hackett exhibits work by members of her art group at Walsall Manor Hospital

AN ARTIST from Great Wyrley has added a splash of colour to the walls of Walsall Manor Hospital.

Some 24 landscapes and contemporary pieces by Ann Hackett have gone on display, while Rushall artist Fred Mason is also exhibiting his work at the Manor.

Debbie Hill, who works in estates and facilities, said the pictures were helping to brighten up the hospital for patients and their visitors. More than 30 paintings are included in the exhibition.

Mrs Hill said: "Over the past 12 months, we have had exhibition space at the hospital for local artists to show off their work.

"We try to encourage local artists to display their paintings. Some are also up for sale."

The artworks will remain on display until the end of May.

Women in £60 theft of meat from Aldi

TWO women who stole meat from a Cannock supermarket claimed they did so because they were struggling to live on benefits.

Michelle Ruscoe and Sarah Tenn went into Aldi in Walsall Road and hid the stolen meat worth more than £60 in a carrier bag.

Cannock Magistrates Court heard the pair were spotted on CCTV paying for a few items in their trolley but not for everything.

Ruscoe, aged 43 of Brooklime Gardens, Featherstone, and Tenn, 39 of Cannock Road, Shareshill, both admitted theft.

Breach

Tenn also admitted a breach of a conditional discharge given to her by Cannock Magistrates in September last year for a similar offence.

Mr Ian Hodnett, defending, said the pair had both got into financial difficulties and with dependent children they were "unable to live off benefits".

A pre-sentence report from the probation service was ordered by magistrates and the pair will appear before the court again tomorrow (Friday).

Bag pack a net gain for girls

NETBALL players from a Cannock school are packing their bags for Malta after raising around £2,000 to fund their tour.

The Kingsmead Netball Club, from Kingsmead Technical College, generated most of the money by packing bags at Sainsbury's supermarket.

The Year 8, 9 and 10 students were presented with a cheque for £1,600 at the Orbital Retail Centre store.

PE teacher Noelle Ryder, who is leading the tour, said: "They've worked like little beavers.

"We've never done a girls-only netball tour before so we're getting quite excited now. "

The 21 girls are due to fly out for their six-day tour on Saturday (March 23).

They will receive two training sessions from local instructors, before playing three competitive games against Maltese school teams.

Mrs Ryder said: "Malta has got quite a netball reputation, but we are one of the best in the area."

The girls also raised around £400 by washing cars at Mill Farm, on Lichfield Road. Money will also go towards new kits, training gear and sweatshirts.

Two held in drug swoop

TWO people were arrested after police executed a drugs warrant near Cannock.

The officers, from South Staffordshire Local Policing Team, searched the house in Stafford Road, Huntington, at around 3.10pm on Saturday, March 16 as part of the force's Operation Nemesis.

In the loft they found cannabis and hydroponic equipment to grow the Class B drug.

A 24-year-old woman and a 32-year-old man were arrested and released on police bail pending further inquiries.

Get in the swim

Graduate collects top marketing award

Alison Harvey, left, finance and quality manager at GDM Heat Transfer, with Lisa Finney

A STAFFORDSHIRE University graduate who works for a firm in Rugeley has received a national award of excellence from the Chartered Institute of Marketing.

Lisa Finney, a Staffordshire University Knowledge Transfer Partnership associate who works with GDM Heat Transfer in Rugeley, won in the manufacturing category in The Marketing EXcellence Awards.

She was presented with the award in front of hundreds of marketing professionals at the Grosvenor House Hotel in London. Lisa, who is currently completing her MBA with Staffordshire University, said: "This is a great reward for the whole team who have worked so hard to build the company up year on year since I arrived.

Identity

"The competition was fierce and for a small outfit like us to come up out on top is a great achievement and one we are proud of."

During her time at the Rugeley-based company, which manufactures and repair aluminium heat exchangers, Lisa has championed new initiatives and overseen the creation of a new brand identity for the company.

Having generated £90,000 of orders and £500,000 of new business inquiries through the development of a new website, GDM has also seen their business grow 20 per cent year on year since undertaking a partnership with Staffordshire University.

GDM had approached the university to help develop a strategic marketing plan to achieve its objectives for growth and international expansion.

Councillors write to MP over gipsy site expansion

ANGRY parish councillors in Cheslyn Hay are demanding answers and have written to their local MP after controversial plans to extend a gipsy site in the village were approved.

Parish council chairman Bob Denson has also sent a letter to bosses at South Staffordshire Council.

by Laura Blyth

It comes after the district authority approved proposals to extend the gipsy site at The Pony Paddock, in Hospital Lane, last month.

Councillor Denson has written to South Staffordshire MP Gavin Williamson expressing his concerns.

He said: "Although we've got nothing against gipsies, originally planning permission was given for family members who had nowhere to live.

"Now it seems it is just getting bigger and bigger and it's on green belt land so we are angered about that."

Youngsters

Mr Denson said the parish council was even more unhappy because the district council recently turned down plans to erect a new building at an allotment site off Pinfold Lane, which would allow disabled people and youngsters to use the land.

The Cheslyn Hay Allotments Association even managed to secure a grant of £2,500 from Staffordshire County Council's Community Wellbeing fund to develop the community building and facilities to support disabled gardeners on site.

Councillor Denson added: "The district council turned down a development on allotments for disabled youngsters because it was on the green belt.

"It would have given them a chance to have a hands-on experience at the allotments. How were the gipsy plans approved and not the allotment plans?"

He said the parish council would be resubmitting the allotment plans on behalf of Cheslyn Hay Allotments Association in the near future.

He added: "The parish council is going to resurrect the plans on behalf of the allotments association.

"We are going to arrange a pre-planning meeting with the district council to discuss the scheme."

South Staffs planners approved the controversial traveller plans at a meeting last month.

Mother-of-four Amy Rodgers lives on the site and now has permission to double its size, allowing a further eight pitches there.

At a heated planning meeting, councillors expressed fears that the site would continue to grow, creating "a small village on the fringes of Cheslyn Hay".

Mrs Rodgers disputed these claims, stating the site, on green belt land, is purely for members of her close family.

And she said before she moved there that the land was blocked with rubbish and frequently a target for fly-tippers.

Cheslyn Hay councillor Mac Harris stormed out in protest. South Staffordshire Council was unavailable to comment.

THE BEST OF PETER RHODES

PRESUMABLY the rail companies and Network Rail cheerfully co-operated in the making of the documentary series The Railway: Keeping Britain on Track (BBC2). They must be regretting it, for the message, loud and clear week after week, is to avoid trains at all costs. Some passengers are not the sort of people you'd want to share a train with, and let's not even mention the state of the lavatories. This week's revolting scenes of cleaning a carriage at the end of a day's use by the Grim British Public was stomach-churning stuff.

❐❐❐❐❐❐❐

IF YOU need proof that Britain has a real booze problem, look no further than the assorted slappers, scrappers and scumbags using the trains on The Railway to get to and from Aintree and a public rally. There was a time, not long ago, when being drunk in a public place was enough to earn you a night in the cells and a £5 fine the next morning. For some reason, drunkenness is now tolerated by the cops and getting thumped by drunks seems to be regarded as an occupational hazard by train and platform staff. It is all very well David Cameron and his Cabinet agonising over a minimum price for booze but the problem is not the cheapness of alcohol but the lack of any deterrent against those who can't handle it.

❐❐❐❐❐❐❐

THAT great national treasure Victoria Wood has attacked "enhanced reality" TV shows such as The Only way is Essex (TOWIE) where ordinary people are encouraged to act out situations. She says it is taking bread out of actors' mouths. Maybe it is. But, like it or not, throughout history from Shakespeare to TOWIE, there has been only one measure of successful drama – will the punters watch it? Sadly, no-one ever lost money by underestimating public taste.

❐❐❐❐❐❐❐

IT CLEARLY pays to go straight to the top. Last week I printed the email address of Ian Livingston, chief executive of the BT group. In the space of a couple of hours, two readers made contact to tell me how a quick email to ian.livingston@bt.com worked wonders. One had a long-running problem with his BT charge card instantly sorted. Another whose landline and internet had been down since early February was reconnected PDQ.

❐❐❐❐❐❐❐

RESEARCHERS at the University of Nottingham have developed a test to detect Alzheimer's disease in its earliest stages. And having been diagnosed, what then? What happens to your life insurance policy? Or your travel insurance? Or your driving licence? Even if some drugs can significantly delay the onset of dementia (which is debatable), there is no defence against the consequences of knowing what is coming. Sometimes, ignorance is bliss.

❐❐❐❐❐❐❐

A READER writes, claiming the "simple answer" to the so-called bedroom tax is for people on benefits with spare bedrooms to adopt a granny. I floated a similar idea a couple of years ago, suggesting pensioners should buddy up, sell two houses and buy one to share. I was promptly slapped down by a self-confessed miserable old git who said he had no desire to share his declining years with another miserable old git.

Plea on vacant unit as store to shut

A SUPERMARKET in Cannock which is closing its doors this weekend – but the district council's leader says it must not be allowed to stand empty for too long.

George Adamson has said Saturday's closure of Lidl, in Church Street, was 'a shame'.

But he called for something to be done with the vacant shop unit, which stands on a retail park near McDonalds and Blockbuster, as soon as possible. He said: "It is a great shame. There is a lot of competition in that area.

"I hope the jobs are not being lost and something is made of the vacant store quickly."

Empty

It is believed the empty Lidl store will be merged with a neighbouring empty unit but it is not yet known if anyone has taken over the site.

A large banner has gone up outside the store to inform customers of its closure. The Lidl store is just a stone's throw away from a Morrisons supermarket and a large Asda store.

Earlier this year, Lidl announced it would be creating around 1,000 jobs as it opened up to 50 new UK stores following a multi-million pound investment.

The German-owned firm operates around 600 stores nationwide, employing 11,000 staff and says it will be hiring for jobs across the business. It unveiled the growth plan as it revealed that strong Christmas sales boosted its December figures by 11 per cent.

Bosses have said they are on the look-out for new larger premises in Staffordshire and said all staff who want to remain with the company will get jobs in other stores.

Challenge curries favour in fundraising mission

Organisers Stephen Sutton and Lee Woodward and the pub chef

TASTEBUDS were put to the test in an eye-watering curry eating challenge for the Teenage Cancer Trust.

It was organised through 18 year-old Stephen Sutton and his friend Lee Woodward and saw keen eaters try a spicy dish.

Stephen has been diagnosed with an incurable cancer but rather than feel sorry for himself has set up a list of 46 things to do before he dies.

He is aiming to raise up to £50,000 for the Teenage Cancer Trust and the event held at the Wych Elm pub in Bridge Cross Road, Burntwood, last Wednesday night was the latest fundraiser.

The man versus food style challenge saw 18 people, including two women take part after clubbing together a minimum £20 each. Alongside the main food test was a jaffa cake eating contest.

Stephen said: "It went really well, and was a really, really fun night. Everyone did pretty well and most of them completed it."

Stephen's to-do list includes getting a tattoo, flying somewhere first-class, hugging an animal that is bigger than himself, meeting Jimmy Carr, starring as an extra in a film or music video and crowd-surfing in a rubber dinghy.

Stephen's father Andy has twice beaten bowel cancer and his own diagnosis came three years ago.

Distinction

It was in November, as doctors were preparing to amputate his left leg, that it was discovered the cancer had spread and that it was incurable.

The Chase Terrace Technology College pupil has ditched his studies after achieving nine GCSEs – five A* and four As – two BTecs that were both distinction, an A-level in maths a year early and an AS in five subjects, including psychology, which he taught himself.

He is now devoting his time to fundraising, organising his charity missions from an office at the college. On his Facebook page he has written: "I have decided to be more pragmatic with my time.

"This will involve utilising as many short term opportunities as possible to enrich my own life experience and most importantly to try and improve the lives of others by fundraising and raising awareness of cancer in teenagers and young adults."

Among the fundraising schemes are to go busking, host a charity Come Dine With Me dinner party for friends and write and release a charity single with his old band, Nothing Personal. See www.justgiving.com/Stephen-Sutton-TCT

Event to celebrate opening of pools

A SPECIAL taster weekend has been organised to mark the opening of the new pools at Chase Leisure Centre.

The newly modernised pools at the Stafford Road venue opened to the public on March 8 after months of delays.

The first 50 people signing up by Direct Debit for a 12-month Profiles Health and Fitness Membership will also be given a month free while golf will be just £5 per round on Saturday.

Chase Leisure Centre manager Sue Popham from operators WLCT, said: "We've been extremely busy since the new pools opened but this weekend is a chance for people to come along and experience these facilities first hand."

Old trees to be replaced

MORE trees are to be planted across Cannock Chase to prevent diseases and pests killing off the area's perennial stock.

The first to be replaced was an infected horse chestnut tree in Cannock Park.

A thriving sweet chestnut tree has been planted in its place by the Friends of Cannock Park Association in conjunction with Cannock Chase Council.

Tom Walsh, parks and open spaces manager at the council, said: "Trees are vital in keeping our natural environment functioning and healthy."

MP backs cash vow on sports

PUPILS across Cannock are to benefit from last year's Olympic legacy as more than £2.7 million is pledged for primary schools in Staffordshire.

The fund set up by the government will see £150 million ploughed back into British sports in the hope of helping future sports stars reach the top of their game.

Prime Minister David Cameron said: "This investment will benefit a whole generation of children for many years to come."

The announcement was welcomed by Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley, who said: "Young people across Cannock Chase will benefit from this announcement.

"This money will help to secure the Olympic legacy and support our Gold medal winners of the future."

Gold meda;-winning heptathlete Jessica Ennis CBE spoke out last week about the decision to invest in sports.

She said: "It is great to see initiatives that help to give really young children the chance to take part in sport.

"This latest funding for primary schools sounds fantastic – now whether in an inner city or small rural community, young kids will be introduced to fun ways to be active that will spark an interest in taking part in sport as they grow up."

Two walks on agenda

TWO walks are in the offing for the Chase & District Ramblers during the next week.

The first is a moderate eight-mile trek at Stone and Barlaston on Sunday, March 24, including Downs Bank, Meeting point is Hednesford rail station car park, Anglesey Street for a prompt 9am departure.

It will be followed on Wednesday, March 27 with an easy five-mile walk near Penkridge, setting off from Pillaton Garden Centre, on Cannock Road at 10am.

Spiritual readings

ONE-to-one readings are being held at Heath Hayes Spiritualist Church next weekend. Sessions are available at The Cabin,Hednesford Road between 10am and noon and from 1-4pm. Cost is £12 per 30-minute tarot and angel card reading. Call Joyce on 01543 579755 to make an appointment.

Children make move to eradicate graffiti

Bridgtown Primary pupils and officers from partner agencies

MORE than 30 pupils from Bridgtown Primary School have become Good Junior Citizens after reporting issues of graffiti to Cannock Chase Council.

Year 6 children from the North Street school were presented with certificates by chairman of the council, Councillor Bob Todd, after they sent out letters highlighting their concerns about graffiti on a bus shelter adjacent to their school.

The children decided something had to be done about the vandalism to prevent it from becoming a common occurrence and the council joined forces with partner agencies to educate the youngsters and raise awareness of environmental issues and aspects of anti-social behaviour.

Attitudes

Councillor Janos Toth, deputy leader of the council and leader of the environment, said: "It is fantastic to see the positive attitudes of these young schoolchildren and how important it is for them to keep their local area free from graffiti.

"The council and its partners are committed to improving the local living environment for our residents and by engaging with these local schoolchildren, it has helped to send out a clear message to others that we can all work together to make a difference to where we live."

The session also provided an opportunity for the partners to promote activities that young people can get involved in within their local area and teacher Sarah Buzzard said the children were thrilled with the engagement and response their letters had received.

Town traders gearing up to celebrate patron saint's day

A MASSIVE St George's Day celebration will be taking place in Rugeley again this year. Organisers have called for hundreds of volunteers to get involved and make it a success.

Rugeley Traders Association are behind the April 23 festivities. Last year's event– the first of its kind to take place in Rugeley – was organised by the town council.

The event runs from 11am to 3pm and traders association chairman Chris Green, said the celebrations would be bigger and better than 12 months ago.

He said: "We seem to celebrate almost every other day, including St Patrick's Day, so we thought it was important to mark this day too, and we couldn't think of a better way to do it and help the town too.

"Having a man dressed up as St George and on a charger is very exciting and brings a lot of attention to Rugeley.

"Events like this is what we work hard to put on to encourage more people into the town. It will also be market day so will be very busy.

Patriotic

"Last year was a resounding success, but this year will be even better."

St George and his white horse will be riding into the town centre on the day. Rugeley schoolchildren will also be designing cardboard cut-outs of the English Rose which will go on display in shop windows to add to the patriotic atmosphere.

Around 200 visitors turned up to the St George's Day celebration in 2012.

Rugeley's town clerk, Naazlin Somani, said everyone was looking forward to the event and also gearing up for this year's annual Charter Fair, which will have a jungle theme and takes place on June 1.

Free fitness advice to be handed out by experts

HEALTH experts will be giving out free advice at a Cannock fitness centre next week.

Nutritionists, physiotherapists and GPs will be among those giving information at the Nuffield Health Fitness and Wellbeing Centre's Meet Our Experts event on Tuesday (March 26).

They will offer tips on nutrition and exercise at the East Cannock Road facility from noon to 8pm. The event is open to people of all ages.

Motivation

Jay Brewer, head of physiology at Nuffield Health, said: "New Year is the prime time for setting fitness goals as we're motivated and excited.

"After three months it is possible the motivation has decreased, our busy lives take over and our plans fall to the bottom of a long list of goals.

"This makes March a perfect opportunity to re-evaluate old goals and any achievements that have already been made."

Meet Our Experts events are held each month at Cannock and its 64 sister Nuffield health sites.

Weed all about Comic Relief fundraiser

Staff members Chris Carr, Paula Gardner with visitor Margaret Bird and residents Brenda Edwards and Evelyn Reader dress up to raise funds for Comic Relief at Lakeview Care Home, Stafford Road, Great Wyrley

THE Flowerpot Men and Weed, Tinky Winky and Andy Pandy helped residents at a Great Wyrley care home support the Comic Relief fundraiser.

Photographs of residents wearing red noses were printed as a souvenir as part of the charity event.

The photos were pinned to white T-shirts for residents at Lakeview Care Home, Great Wyrley, to wear for a fundraising party.

Carers and other staff at the home, run by Alpha Care Homes, in Stafford Road were invited to pay a £1 to ditch their uniforms for the day and wear fancy dress or red clothing instead.

Some donned costumes of storybook favourites while others had red tinsel wigs to get into the spirit. There was entertainment by Wolverhampton-based song and dance act Val and John Rivers, a husband and wife who perform as Val Rivers and Co.

Lakeview activities co-ordinator Chris Carr said the aim was to have fun as well as raising money for a good cause.

IN MY VIEW WITH MARK ANDREWS

FORGET minimum pricing for alcohol, coffee abuse is the real menace we need to get to grips with if the latest advertisement for the Costa chain is anything to go by.

To those who haven't yet had the joy, a young coffee-shop worker appears to have imbibed so much of the dreaded caffeine that he starts hallucinating about a line-up of people buried up to their neck in coffee beans, their disembodied heads all nodding manically to a sinister soundtrack including the lyric: In the darkness, there's so much I wanna do.

A man, who it should be noted, bears a worrying resemblance to the fellow in the Cortina who used to hang around school gates in those old Say No To Strangers public information broadcasts from the 1970s.

I have long suspected that little good comes out of these trendy coffee-shop chains which always seem to be packed with earnest young people who take life very seriously, and it has often struck me that they would be far happier down the pub.

I always assumed they were plotting some sort of global revolution, some new world order where war is a thing of the past, apples are for all alike, and everybody lives in peace and happiness.

But, thanks to the Costa adverts, we now realise that their plans are altogether darker. They are all harbouring twisted fantasies about burying us alive in coffee beans while listening to Kiss's greatest hits.

Which puts a spot of light brawling on a Saturday night into perspective.

IN what surely sounds like an early April Fool's Day prank, it emerges that the police-backed Crimestoppers organisation is to distribute scratch-and-sniff cards scented with cannabis across the West Midlands force area.

Apparently, the idea is that by making people more familiar with the sweet smell of marijuana, they are more likely to notice whether or not they are living next to a drugs factory.

You would not think it was beyond the wit of even the most incurious neighbours to wonder whether the pungent odour emanating from the empty house next door is a symptom of some sort of nefarious goings on. But no, it seems that we have all got to get a whiff of the exotic tobacco, just to be sure, you understand.

Presumably the scratchcards will be harmless enough, but has it not crossed anybody's mind that some people, particularly the young, will view them as a little more than a free sample.

Firefighter Matt Owens, who devised the scenes

Horror on the street as residents watch the blaze

The iconic Rovers Return pub goes up in smoke

Firefighter's soap role proves blaze of glory

The Rovers Return has gone up in flames in soapland's biggest storylines of the year. And fans of Corrie have a Cannock firefighter to thank for the scenes. KIRSTEN RAWLINS reports

THE Rovers Return fire is the most talked about TV blaze this year – and it's all been orchestrated by Cannock firefighter Matt Owens.

Mr Owens, who is based at Cannock Community Fire Station in his day job, also runs a firm which provides safety advice, training, character extras and props to the BBC and ITV for fire scenes.

His latest venture was the fire at The Rovers Return on Coronation Street, which was first broadcast on Monday evening and then continued last night (Wednesday).

Surreal

Soap fans have Mr owens to thank for the action as the dramatic and realistic scenes – which led to the death of Sunita Patel – were down to him.

In part of his role, the 25-year-old from Cannock had to train Tony Hirst, who plays fireman Paul Kershaw, how to carry out a fireman's lift for a rescue in the scene.

"We've done all the fire safety for the filming of the scene and we were on scene in case any actors got trapped or if the fire got out of control," said Mr Owens, director of the firm Rapid Fire Cover. "There were 12 of us on standby just in case anything went wrong.

"We played extras as well," Mr Owens said. It's all a bit surreal being there on the set and on camera," he added. "At one point we were standing outside The Rovers Return, just watching it burn.

"Normally as firefighters, we'd get to the scene and be putting the fire out.

"It was unreal just watching the fire – especially at such an iconic pub."

Mr Owens added: "It was all a bit out of the ordinary , working with people you see on TV.

"It was really good and we were really well looked after as well.

"It was a hard three weeks working on the set – we were there from February 11 to last Tuesday. The first week we working all nights, from 3pm to 5am.

"The second week was all days, doing inside shots and the last week was spent just tidying bits up.

"It was a long three weeks, but it was really good."

Cannock's Rapid Fire Crew on the cobbled set of Coronation Street

Episode

Mr Owens, who lives and works on the Hednesford Road, has previously worked on the sets for prgrammes such as A Touch of Frost, Hollyoaks, Bedlam, Silent Witness and Emmerdale.

He was also responsible for the fire safety for Wednesday night's episode of Prisoner's Wives.

"We did the garage scene on Emmerdale last year, which is what led to us being chosen to do Coronation Street," he said.

"They got in touch about Christmas time to ask if we wanted to do it and asking what I thought they would need to do a scene like that, how many people they would need and how many firefighters would be called out to an incident like that."

THROUGH THE YEARS

1983...

THE search began in Wolverhampton to find companies to take on unemployed youngsters as part of the government's new Youth Training Scheme. It replaced the Young Opportunities Programme, which had been criticised due to some employers giving youngsters mundane jobs.

DUDLEY council tenants and home owners were urged to rent out their spare rooms to cope with a predicted 50,000 tourists a week in the borough.

Council chiefs spent £30,000 publicising attractions such as Dudley Zoo and the Black Country Museum, but were concerned about the dearth of bed and breakfast accommodation.

BRITISH Rail opened a new multi-million pound train station in Oldbury. The Sandwell and Dudley station was expected to cost around £2 million.

1993...

COUNCIL workers in Wolverhampton were facing up to a complete ban on smoking at their desks. Under proposed changes special smoking areas would be provided for staff desperate to light up. However, a report to the council's personnel committee warned this could cost a packet.

EVERY job vacancy in Staffordshire was being chased by around 64 people, as unemployment in the county soared.

A report by the Staffordshire Economic Monitor revealed that unemployment in the county shot up by 18 per cent to 48,000. However, unemployment in the region was still lower than the national average.

LENNY Henry was named BBC Personality of the Year by the Television and Radio Industries Club. The Dudley-born comedian beat off competition from Noel Edmunds and Ian McShane.

2003...

A WOLVES-MAD Black Country mother-of-three was jumping for joy after scooping a National Lottery jackpot to win £2,000 every month for the rest of her life. Carol Hellend from Wednesbury matched three symbols on a scratchcard.

A SIXTH-FORMER at a Wolverhampton school was rewarded with a watch - after not missing a single lesson in more than five years. Jonathan Ball clocked up the astonishing attendance record at Northicote School, Bushbury.

COUNCIL leaders in Wolverhampton mounted a costly new bid to woo reluctant voters back to the polls. A special guide to voting, costing around £20,000 to produce, was distributed to 100,000 homes across the city in the run up to council elections.

Wolves boss on the ball at fundraiser for Liam

Wolves boss Dean Saunders with Liam's dad Andy and sister Hannah

Teenage footballer Liam Keeling

WOLVES boss Dean Saunders joined around 340 people at a fundraising dinner in memory of a young Cheslyn Hay footballer who died of meningitis.

The ex-Aston Villa striker spoke about his career at Walsall's Banks's Stadium during an event organised by the family of tragic Liam Keeling.

The 13-year-old, of Cheslyn Hay, died suddenly in October 2009 just days after falling ill.

The death of the pupil of Cardinal Griffin School in Cannock prompted his parents Andy and Georgina to collect cash for Meningitis UK. Last Friday night's event raised £8,000. Guests were treated to a four-course meal, while football shirts signed by former England captain Bryan Robson, Manchester United's Ryan Giggs and the Wolves squad were also auctioned off.

Proud

Postman Mr Keeling said: "It's gone well. We hold this event every year. This is our fourth one and we are about 100 people up on last year.

"Everyone has been in good spirits. It's fantastic that people want to remember Liam. He played football for Wyrley Juniors. He would have been very proud of this." Molineux boss Saunders said: "It's for a good cause. Liam's special to everyone. It makes you realise sometimes what you've got. I've had a brilliant reception from everyone here."

Steve Dayman, the founder of Meningitis UK, was also at the dinner. The 64-year-old, of Bristol, said: "I met Andy and Georgina soon after they lost Liam. Since then, with all the fundraising they have done, it's amazing. They have raised almost £140,000. It's a tribute to Liam."

The event was rearranged in March after Saunders could not make the evening because of a change of dates for a match between Wolves and Watford.

Victorian gem that should be retained

WE would like to respond to County Councillor, Pat Corfield, who said the Ivy House is not a Listed building, is not fit for purpose and would be extremely costly to the taxpayer. We can only presume that these are his personal views and not those of the residents of Cannock.

If anyone had taken the time to ask the local residents, they might have found that there is a lot of affinity towards the building and its history.

If this were a derelict building about to fall down, then it might not be" fit for purpose". However as a dedicated workforce still use it on a daily basis, on behalf of the community in the form of Social Services, how can it be "not fit for purpose?"

This is a little Victorian gem that should be retained for future generations.

Financial lessons still not learned

I WOULD like to correct Cannock Chase District Council leader George Adamson (Chronicle letters, March 7).

The statement of a "hidden tax bomb" proves how Labour have not learned their basic financial lessons that got the country in the mess it is in now.

The facts: A council cannot raise council tax by more than two per cent without a referendum. A good and balanced budget like any household budget looks forward four years, and while a below inflation annual increase of two per cent is built into the budget, that does not necessarily mean there will be an increase.

Interestingly, from 1997-2009 when they lost control, the County Council Labour group, year on year increased the county council tax by a compound rate of 230 per cent. Since the Conservatives took control in 2009, they have reduced council tax in real terms while maintaining valued services to deliver the lowest county council tax in the country at £1027.25 for a Band D home.

Among the highlights Conservatives have delivered an additional £50m investment in roads, grit 43 per cent of highways, kept all 43 libraries open, deliver better more focused care for vulnerable adults and children and attracted top flight employers like JLR to invest in Staffordshire.

COUNTY COUNCILLOR
PAT CORFIELD

Motives questioned over 'bedroom tax'

I NOTE that Cannock Council's Conservative housing spokesman – and MP's assistant – Jodie Jones has defended the government's so-called bedroom tax. She says she hears from people waiting for an appropriate council house and that there are too many people waiting for too few homes.

She is right in this respect and I had hoped the Conservatives in Cannock Chase might come round to the idea of reinvesting in our district's housing stock. That was until Aidan Burley MP said he was disappointed to be told that Cannock Chase Council had not taken up a scheme encouraging people to buy their own council homes.

This led me to question the real motives of Councillor Jones and Cannock Chase Conservatives? Are they genuinely concerned there are not enough houses for the most vulnerable, and would actively encourage more housing provision? Or are they willing to kick people out of their homes by taxing the poorest and then selling off the stock?

NHS head 'won't go'

I WOULD be very surprised to see David Nicholson resign or be dismissed from his post. As head of the NHS during the last two governments, he would have been party to its plans to make the NHS appear as 'not fit for purpose' and herald in the privatisation of the NHS. I have no doubt that he has kept copies of all emails, letters, plans etc from both ministers and civil servants.

Plea over labelling of animal products

THE horsemeat scandal is only the tip of the iceberg. Most meat in our supermarkets gives us no information about the animals' welfare .

High welfare products carry labels like "free range" or "organic", but others offer little or no details on how the animals lived and died.

Pork could come from pigs who lived in barren pens on slippery slatted floors and were never given comfy straw to sleep on. The average chicken could be one of the 27 per cent that Defra estimate go lame before they get sent to slaughter.

I think it's time we were given a window into the lives of the animals we eat. I'm supporting Compassion in World Farming's campaign to get compulsory labelling of all animal products, so we know how and where those animals were reared, how long they were transported for and how they were killed.

Response time fears as fire crew uses gym

I AM growing concerned that every time I attend Cannock Leisure Centre that there is a fire engine parked outside with the crew inside enjoying the facilities. I worry that if there is a fire or car accident, how long would it take these on duty firefighters to get changed and attend?

Please don't tell me that this facility is given free to them? I thought the multi-million pound recently upgraded fire stations all had gym facilities?

We all know these lads provide a life-saving service, but it is taking the Mickey, when the local hospital staff, the ambulance service and police force are crumbling due to underfunding? I wonder what their overworked staff think of this?

NAME AND ADDRESS SUPPLIED

Horsemeat scandal likened to expenses

I CAN'T help but feel the horsemeat scandal is on par with the MPs' expenses fiasco where a lot of people knew it was going on but because it suited their needs they shielded the truth from the general public.

If horsemeat is safe to eat perhaps the manufacturers should add a warning on the packaging saying this product may contain horsemeat and let the public decide if they want to buy that item. At least we would know what we are eating – unlike tucking into a 'meat' curry from an Indian or Chinese outlet. What meat could that be and how many people ask?

Parcel firm hoping to deliver on opening vow

The impressive-looking new APC depot at Kingswood Lakeside, Cannock

Chief Executive Syed Ziaullah inside the new purpose-built APC warehouse

BOSSES say a new £15million headquarters for a next-day delivery firm will be up and running within months.

The finishing touches are currently being made to the huge national sorting centre for APC Overnight which is being built in Cannock at the Kingswood Lakeside Business Park.

The building will cover 138,000sq ft and will allow the firm to handle 36 million items a year. The firm will move from its current base on Warstone Road, Essington.

Chief executive Syed Ziaullah said the company could be operating in the new building by the end of May. He said: "It is the first time the business has been in a position where it can have a bespoke building built for us. It is one massive milestone for the company. It will significantly improve our business."

Sympathetic

The transformation of the former opencast coal mine site will allow the firm to double its capacity from handling 1.5 million items a month to three million.

Mr Ziaullah added: "The building looks very impressive from most angles and there will be a lot of landscaping done so we can remain sympathetic to the area. We are extremely pleased and proud with what we have achieved."

APC Overnight is the UK's largest independent next day parcel delivery firm with pre-tax profits of £4.42m in 2011/2012, a rise of 30.4 per cent on the previous year.

Engineers Rodgers Leask helped to deliver the new premises. Director Paul Spencer said: "We are proud to have worked on APC's impressive new hub in Cannock."

Dog mess bins to be installed at village park

DOG waste dispensers and bins are being installed at a Cheslyn Hay park after a rise in the number of owners not cleaning up after their pets.

The bins and dispensers will be added to the four entrances of the Old Recreation Ground off Station Street.

Parish council chairman Bob Denson said it was for health and safety reasons, and so visitors could continue to enjoy the beauty area. He said: "The biggest users of the park are dog walkers.Rather than ban dogs from the park we wanted to do something a bit more positive."

The new bins and dispensers at the Old Recreation Ground are costing the parish council around £500.

Lemurs settling in

Golam and Smeagol settle into their new surroundings

TWO ring-tailed lemurs are settling into their new home at South Staffordshire College's Animal Zone on the Rodbaston campus.

Brothers Golam and Smeagol have a new, purpose built enclosure made out of recycled fences by staff and students.

The lemurs arrived from Beal Park, Berkshire in 2008 when they were just a year old and are now the star attraction.

Senior keeper Vicky Kirkman said: "We are all very excited about the new enclosure and how it has come together. We are hoping they will be quick to explore.

"It's a great new attraction for the general public when we open at weekends and holidays."

The lemurs will be observed regularly by keepers and students as they acclimatise to their new home, complete with climbing frame.

Ring-tailed lemurs are the most terrestrial of the species, living primarily on the ground on a diet consisting of fruit and leaves, with some insects.

They are native to Madagascar and the surrounding islands where they are under threat from deforestation and the pet trade.

Murder suspect appears in court

A MURDER suspect who was sprung from a prison van has appeared in court, 14 months after he had first been due to attend.

John Anslow was originally due to appear at Stafford Crown Court on January 23 last year in relation to the murder of skip hire boss Richard Deakin, aged 34.

But he escaped from custody and has remained at large ever since.

The 32-year-old was held in northern Cyprus last week and then brought back into the country on Saturday, where he was arrested at Heathrow Airport.

On Monday he made his first crown court appearance since being charged with the murder of Mr Deakin, from Chasetown. He was found dead in his home in Meadway Street on July 5, 2010.

Anslow, from Tipton, appeared via video link and a provisional date for his trial was set for October 2. He spoke to confirm his name at the start of the hearing and at the end to say he had understood everything.

He was represented in court by Gary Bell, while Jonathan Barker appeared for the prosecution.

Handwriting is talk topic

FAMILY historian Pam Woodburn will be addressing Norton Canes Historical and Family History Group next Tuesday, March 26. At the meeting, at Norton Canes Library, in Brownhills Road, she will talk about 'old handwriting' and give help with online research. The meeting is from 7-9pm and admission is free.

Rotary to the rescue

Steve Harris, front, with Rotary vice president Allan Rotchell and president David Marklew

EMERGENCY services took to the water to rescue Rotary Club members. They staged the exercise to thank them for a special donation.

Staffordshire's Search and Rescue Team were on hand to show the club how they work – and to thank them a £1,425 towards three new dry suits.

At Chasewater Sailing Club, president of The Rotary Club of Cannock David Marklew, threw himself into the role along with junior vice president Allan Rotchell. Wearing the new suits, they waited for the SSART to come to their rescue.

Rescuer Steve Harris said the SSART team was grateful to be able to show off their new skills, and for the donation.

He said: "We are self-funded and all volunteers in the SSART and recently, out of the 60 volunteer search technicians, 40 of us were given in total 800 hours of training on water searches and rescues."

Cash boost for clubs as Grant Aid is handed out

NON-PROFIT organisations in Burntwood have received a fundraising boost after Lichfield District Council announced its annual Grant Aid scheme.

Parish councils, clubs and charities applied for the funding to help them deliver a range of services.

by Pete Madeley

The council awarded £23,440 in small grants of between £140 and £2,750 to 29 organisations, six of them based in Burntwood.

Burntwood St Matthew's Cricket Club received £400 to help towards the installation of a power supply at The Riddings.

Heating

Chairman John Farmer said: "We are extremely grateful for the council's help. The club was close to folding a few years ago, but we have revitalised it by introducing four junior teams and a ladies team.

"We have never had a hot water supply or any heating, so this is a boost as well as the football teams that use the ground."

Burntwood Live at Home, based at The Old Mining College, Queen Street, received £450 to build two raised garden beds as part of a project to grow flowers, herbs and vegetables.

Manager Sue Meehan said: "The garden will be built by the council and maintained by older people from this area.

"We are hoping the garden will promote healthy living."

Other beneficiaries were Burntwood Methodist Church, on Cannock Road, which received £400 to pay for a new sound system, and Burntwood Memorial Institute, on Rugeley Road, which was given £400 to refelt the roof.

Forward Action Burntwood Knit and Natter were awarded £400 to pay for transport costs.

Burntwood Town Council was awarded £2,750 to contribute towards the Burntwood Wakes in July.

Enterprising pupils test business skills

Wolgarston High School Young Enterprise team Get Apptive display their wares at the trade fair in Stone

TEAMS of students tested out their entrepreneurial skills to the test by setting up their own companies.

Products from cookery books to grow-your-own water cress pots and utility belts to earphone holders have been created by pupils who exhibited their products at Stone Farmers Market as part of the Young Enterprise programme.

Ten groups in all set up their stands to sell products that they conceived, designed and developed themselves. Winners of the best stand on the day were the Flipt team from Alleyne's School, Stone, for their cookbook. Another Alleyne's team Equipo were runners-up with Earbuddy, a holder which prevents earphones from tangling. Little Messages from St Dominic's Girls School in Brewood, took third prize. Their products are wooden heart shapes with bespoke messages painted on them.

Two Wolgarston High School teams in Penkridge were among the other teams taking part. Get Apptive produced a healthy recipe cook book, while Mufassa devised a utility belt aimed at runners.

At the Wedgwood Museum on March 27 each team will put up their trade stand and give a four-minute presentation. The winner will go on to represent Stone and Stafford in the West Midlands Regional Finals in June.

Limit cut at blackspot

HIGHWAYS bosses are to cut the speed limit on an accident-hit stretch of road through Great Wyrley.

The limit will be reduced from 50mph to 40mph on the A34 between Landywood and Newtown. It follows 11 accidents there, some serious, over the past five years.

Transport chiefs are now considering the results of a review of all A and B roads in the county and will consider if other speed limits should be cut.

Councillor Alan Kelsey, who sits on Great Wyrley Parish Council, welcomed the speed limit change to the stretch of the A34. He said: "Only 12 months ago there was a fatality there down by the nursing home.

"People come out of Great Wyrley at 30mph and then go up to 50mph. Then they're back down to 30mph again. It's only a short section of the road. It's a busy road.

"I think the new speed limit is for the best. I think 40mph is much better than 50mph along that stretch. However I don't think we need any more speed cameras. We have enough in Great Wyrley."

Priority

Staffordshire County Council looks after more than 3,300 miles of road. Spokesman Helen Eyley said officers had carried out a review of the speed limits and were currently assessing the recommendations.

She said: "Any resulting speed limit changes will be subject to local consultation. However, safety of road users is the county council's primary concern so priority will be given to those roads where accidents have taken place.

"A start date for the work on the A34 has not yet been finalised.

"Our consultation with local people showed that there were no objections to our plan to cut the speed limit to 40 mph."

As well as speed limits being cut along some routes, signs will also be replaced or refurbished if needed.

The estimated cost of the changes along the A34 Stafford Road will be in the region of £7,000.

Enforcement of the new speed limit will be undertaken by Staffordshire Police.

Gifts in store for 40 years' service

Chris Paget with deputy store manager Lee Wesley

A SUPERMARKET worker who climbed her way up the ranks over 40 years has been recognised for her decades of service. Chris Paget joined Sainsbury's as a cashier in 1973, then working in the chain's Wolverhampton branch.

She went on to hold positions in the grocery department and offices and is now the commercial manager at the Cannock's Orbital store.

In recognition of her commitment, she and her colleagues enjoyed a slice of cake and a glass of champagne.

Ms Paget, aged 57 and from Wolverhampton, was presented with a '40 years' badge and a bouquet of flowers and was also gifted an ipad and laptop.

"I am still trying to decide whether I am going to stay or not," she said. "But after all these years I still enjoy my job."

Deputy manager Nina Ismet said Ms Paget was a "highly valued member of our team".

Homes stock upgrade to cost council about £120k

AROUND £120,000 is to be spent on improving council homes across Cannock, it has been announced this week.

New fire alarms will be installed at properties and also a number of bungalows refurbished.

by Laura Blyth

Another £253,000 is being spent on buying 11 new vehicles which deliver housing maintenance and estate caretaking services.

The improvement programme was set to be approved by Cannock Chase Council's Cabinet today (Thursday) with work starting from next month.

Utility

Around £40,000 has been set aside for the new fire alarms and £80,000 for the bungalow conversion works.

A number of empty bungalows will have their utility rooms converted into second bedrooms to increase the number of two-bed bungalows within the housing stock so they can be re-let.

Head of housing Ian Tennant said so far four bungalows had benefited from the upgrades.

Alarms in four of the council's sheltered housing schemes – Caxton Court, Longford Court, Grace Moore Court and St Barbara House – will be replaced. The existing systems in all of the homes are 12-years old.

The housing division of Cannock Chase Council has a fleet of 37 vehicles to assist in the delivery of housing maintenance and estate caretaking services.

The majority of the vehicles were bought in or before 2008 and as a result of their age and condition are likely to begin to suffer from breakdowns and high running costs. Eleven vehicles in the worst condition will be replaced.

Cannock Chase Council owns around 5,000 homes, while the housing team carries out more than 1,800 jobs per month and repairs and maintains more than 420 empty properties.

Volunteers in canalside clean-up

Will Burnish, from Canal and River Trust, presents an award to Margaret Beardsmore, of the Inland Waterways Association, in recognition of the improvements that volunteers in Rugeley made to the canal during 2012

SEVENTEEN volunteers held a spring clean alongside a canal in Rugeley.

The work party collected 21 bags of litter on a cold but dry Saturday morning along the Trent and Mersey Canal. Graffiti was removed from a canal bridge and 420 saplings were planted to make a hedge. The spring clean was jointly organised by the Inland Waterways Association, Rugeley Lions and the Canal and River Trust.

Margaret Beardsmore, Inland Waterways work party co-ordinator said: "All the volunteers were local to Rugeley, including families who brought their children along for the morning."

Call over Chase survey

CHASE MP Aidan Burley is calling on his constituents to decide how the region's Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty should be managed going forward.

The Cannock Chase AONB Partnership reviews its management plan every five years.

Its current proposed management plan sets out a plan to improve management and public access in the years leading up to 2029. Residents are now being asked to give their views on the organisation's policies, performance and priorities in an online survey.

Mr Burley said: "Cannock Chase AONB is such a special place and it never fails to impress me with its beauty and the many resources it has for everyone to enjoy.

"I get a lot out of volunteering for the AONB, as I want to take an active role in helping to maintain and protect this valuable habitat.

"By filling in the questionnaire, and giving my feedback on the plans, it's a great way to feel a part of the team."

Cannock Chase was designated as an AONB in 1958. It has the largest surviving area of lowland heathland in the Midlands.

Ruth Hytch, Cannock Chase AONB Officer, said: "It's really important to us that local people and visitors agree with our vision for the future."

The proposed management plan and survey are available online at www.cannock-chase.co.uk. The deadline to fill in the survey is June 14.

Benidorm or Bust for banger car fundraisers

Ian Pitt, right, and his riend Phillip Bowyer with the Benidorm or Bust car and, inset, a close-up of the bonnet

THREE men dressed as pirates are travelling 1,500 miles in an old banger to raise money for Stafford Hospital's chemotherapy ward.

Old school pals Steven Smith from Handsacre and Mark Mosey from Lichfield, both aged 40 are joining Ian Pitt, 54, from Chadsmoor on a cross-continental car rally in a beaten up old Volvo estate decorated to look like a pirate ship. The team known as the 'Pirates of Benidorm' are raising money for the ward after Ian's wife, Susan, lost a long battle with cancer.

Ian, who has already managed to raise more than £800 for the ward, said "I had to do something, they were so important to my wife. They have been really good and do remarkable work."

Benidorm or Bust is a charity rally that challenges teams to drive from Blackpool to the Spanish resort in cars worth less than £500. Each year 35 teams decorate their cars and set off in convoy to raise thousands for charities up and down the UK.

So far the swashbucklers have drummed up support from Hednesford Town FC, Lloyds TSB in Cannock and hundreds of friends who have all signed the car to wish them luck.

CLUB NEWS

Business followed by a quiz

BONEY HAY AND CHASE TERRACE WI

IT WAS a cold evening but this did not deter the members from attending the Annual General Meeting.

There had been no nominations from the floor and it was unanimously agreed that the committee should stand for a further 12 months. President Pam Watson thanked everyone for their support and hoped that the coming year would be as successful as the last. She paid particular thanks to Anne Whitehouse for her help.

Following completion of the official business, everyone sat down to enjoy tea or coffee and light refreshments, a selection of crackers, bread, cheeses and salad.

During the evening there was short quiz, not too arduous quiz. There was no prize for the winner as it was just for fun.

A special raffle, consisting of a large basket, filled with lots of goodies, was provided by Lynda Foster, that and the usual monthly raffle, with lots of prizes were both well supported.

The meeting closed a little before 10pm, and all the ladies ventured into the cold night and the journey home.

Next month, the club returns to normal when Mrs Gaynor Woodard will be welcomed as the visitor. Her subject is "Flowers from the Kitchen".

City walk highlights issue of trafficking

Soroptimists clad in the colour purple prepare for their walk through Lichfield

SOROPTIMISTS

ALMOST 100 Soroptimists from 13 clubs within the Midland Chase Region wore purple and walked through Lichfield City centre on March 9.

They were led by Region President Dishi Attwood, a member of SI Lichfield.

The walk was held to mark International Women's Day and was part of the club's continuing work to raise awareness of the issue of trafficking and child sexual exploitation.

Cards and leaflets were given out and many members of the public joined in the walk to Speakers Corner by Minster Pool to find out more.

At Speakers Corner a Cannock club member addressed the crowd, explaining that trafficking isn't just about people being moved from one country to another against their will. The issue affects women and girls being trafficked from one town or street to another and could be happening in many of our towns, right now.

Lions lay on afternoon tea

RUGELEY LIONS

LIONS International's motto is "We Serve" and the Rugeley and District Club did just that when they laid on an afternoon tea party at St Barbara House, which offers sheltered accommodation.

To help set the scene Lions president Ed Rule showed a film on the work of Lions International and gave a slide show on what the local club had been involved with over the past year. This was followed by cream scones and trifle prepared by Lions Jane Stevenson and Jasmin Noyse.

To show their appreciation the residents bought Easter raffle tickets which Rugeley Lions are now selling to raise funds for various good causes locally and internationally.

Renewed objections made over supermarket car park

FRESH objections have been made to a supermarket car park due to open in Hednesford which business owners say will impact on trade.

Traders say that Aldi's 90-minute car park will not allow customers adequate time to shop and use business services in the area.

by Will Ackermann

The Chase Gateway site is currently run by Hednesford Town Council, which allows unlimited free parking at all of its car parks.

The budget chain will take control of 121 of 165 spaces at the site when it opens its new supermarket in June.

Concerns

Mike Higgins, general manager at the Hednesford Bingo, wants the parking time limit increased to four hours.

He says his concerns have not been listened to, despite a 128-strong petition calling for the problem to be addressed, which has now expired.

Mr Higgins said: "Aldi have just got their heads in the sand. We need people to explore Hednesford, not to dive in for their shopping and dive out again.

"Ninety minutes isn't long enough.

"If you go a minute over it's a £40 fine," he added.

"If business starts to drop there's only one option and that's to make people redundant, which we don't want to do.

"The problem is not with Aldi; it's with the parking regime," he added.

Aldi is taking up the unit as part of a £50 million regeneration of the town centre.

The revamp includes a new Tesco supermarket with a 640-space car park, which traders claim is too far away for pensioners.

Stage set for lights as pupils bag funds

PUPILS in Hednesford have raised more than £500 at a bag packing event.

West Hill Primary School on High Mount Street, visited Morrisons supermarket in Burntwood to help shoppers at the checkout. Their efforts will go towards buying new stage lighting.

The students have raised £3,000 towards the fixture through various activities throughout the year and the Parent Teacher and Friend Association arranged the event at Morrisons to help them raise the last £503.

Headteacher Shaun Miles said: "I am very pleased that the students and their families managed to raise such a huge amount of money which will go towards a new stage lighting rig.

The people of Burntwood were so generous in donating their money and I would like to say a big thank you to them."

Meeting date to raise views

RESIDENTS in Hednesford will be able to raise their concerns at the annual town meeting next month.

It will be held at 7pm on Tuesday, April 23 at Pye Green Community Centre, Bradbury Lane.

People will also be able to discuss a possible recycling plan.

Appeal to rent out lodgings

RESIDENTS in Hednesford are being encouraged to rent their homes to young people who have been in care or crisis. Householders will become a Staffordshire Supported Lodgings host and offer support and guidance to youngsters between the age of 16 and 18. For details, call 0800 169 2061 or visit www.staffordshire.gov.uk/supportedlodgings

Owner Boyd Roden at the new Hednesford salon with staff members Sarah Potter, Hayley Pember, Amie Thomas, Dawn Dawkin, Emma Thompson, and Olivia Webster

Boyd is putting on style

A HAIRDRESSING salon has opened as part of Hednesford's multi-million pound development.

Boyd's Hair Design, at Chase Gateway, Market Street, is 43-year-old owner Boyd Roden's second salon.

The father-of-three, of Heath Hayes, has had a salon in Chase Terrace, for 15 years. He said: "Mr Roden said: "I've been looking for a second salon for about 12 months.

"We are extremely popular at Chase Terrace. There are 16 staff that work there.

"There will be five staff in the new salon and we have taken two new hairdressers. We may also possibly be looking for a stylist."

The salon is on two floors with an upstairs facility for hair colouring.

At an open day last Saturday goody bags were given out and bookings taken.

Stalwart is honoured in function room name

A HEDNESFORD councillor has been acknowledged for his hard work in the community.

A function room at Pye Green Community Centre has been named after town councillor John O'Leary MBE, a former JP, in recognition of his service to the local community.

Town clerk Peter Harrison said: "It was decided at a council meeting that we would rename the function room after John. He is very deserving of this accolade because he has had a long impressive and distinguished career in the public sector.

"John has been chairman of both Cannock Chase District Council and Staffordshire County Council and lives in Hednesford just around the corner from the centre so I am pleased we were able to give him this honour."

History group idea for town

THE wheels are in motion to establish a history group in Hednesford to trace the lives of notable figures who have lived in the area.

It is hoped the group will come together for regular meetings. Anyone interested in the project should telephone 01543 424872 for more information.

Recycling plea as new bins put out too early

HOUSEHOLDERS in South Staffordshire have been putting out new blue bins for collection, more than a month before they come into use.

Residents are being reminded not to use the new recycling bins yet.

It emerged last week that around 150 residents a day had been putting the blue bins out to be emptied. District Council chiefs said they should not be used until April 1.

The authority began delivering 29,000 new bins last month. Director of environmental services Jackie Smith said: "Approximately 150 properties per day are putting out their blue bin for collection."

The new bins will replace the current recycling box and newspaper bag with a single wheelie bin for all recycling. They will be used alongside the existing rubbish bin and garden waste bin.

Leaflet

South Staffs District Council leader Councillor Brian Edwards said: "We've put out a leaflet with every bin saying residents need to start putting them out on April 1."

The move will cost the council around £880,000 which bosses say will be less than £20 a house for the bin to be made and delivered.

The authority believes the new system can save around £15,000 a year because it currently has to send out 4,500 additional or replacement green boxes every year.

The service is also designed to help the council cut the amount of rubbish being sent to landfill.

Anyone who has not received their bin by March 25 is asked to contact the council on 01902 696203.

Chance to go on a bear hunt at district's libraries

CRAFT and story sessions have been organised at Chase district libraries to keep youngsters busy this Easter.

Heath Hayes will be holding various activities on Tuesday, April 2 from 10am and Hednesford has organised an afternoon session from 2pm. The Cannock venue will host afternoon classes on April 3 at 2pm with sessions at Rugeley taking place April 4 at 2pm. Brereton will follow with activities on April 5 at 10.30am. Norton Canes library will have an afternoon session on the same day at 2pm.

The events are aimed at children aged 4-8 years old and are based on author Michael Rosen's classic tale 'We're Going on a Bear Hunt.' Admission is free but places must be booked in advance.

Funeral to take place of one-time store owner

THE funeral was taking place today (Thursday) of the owner of a well-known former general store in Cannock.

Arthur White, who ran Whites Stores in Longford Road, died at the age of 92 on March 11.

Store owner Arthur White

He ran the store with his wife Olive for almost 30 years from 1956 .

Mr White was also treasurer of the Cannock British Legion Club for several years after retiring.

Paying tribute, daughter Linda Walker, aged 57, said: "I remember growing up when mum and dad had the shop. "They were there seven days a week until 7pm most nights. It was a demanding job."

Mr White was brought up in Wimblebury before moving to Heath Hayes. Whites Stores was passed down to him from his ancestors.

Gardening

He worked there from the age of 36 and retired at 65. Olive died when she was 61.

They had just one daughter, Linda, and two granddaughters Julie, 32, and Helen, 29.

Mrs Walker, of Dartmouth Avenue, Cannock, added: "In his spare time he liked going to the Progression Club in Market Hall Street, Cannock. He also used to like gardening and having barbecues."

Mr White died at Ashcroft Hollow Nursing Home in Stafford Road, Huntington, after suffering from kidney failure. He fell from a bus in 2006 and broke his hip. He was also partially sighted and had diabetes.

The funeral was being held at St Luke's Church in Cannock with donations being passed on to the Midlands Air Ambulance.

'Do duty' in reporting criminals

RESIDENTS across the Chase are being urged to bring criminals to justice by making better use of anonymous crime charity Crimestoppers.

Staffordshire's Police and Crime Commissioner Matthew Ellis is urging residents to report crime to "make life more uncomfortable for wrong-doers."

Mr Ellis said: "Crime is comparatively low in most of Staffordshire but it's time to turn the screw that bit further. Over the next few years I want society to play a bigger part in tackling crime than ever before.

"Doing that alongside the work of police and other agencies will mean criminals constantly looking over their shoulder and waiting for that knock at the door or that door going in.

"Crimestoppers provides anonymity so people can do their duty for Staffordshire in the fight against crime,"he added.

Most desirable

A VILLAGE near Rugeley has been named by as one of the best places to live in the Midlands. The Sunday Times Best Places list revealed Abbots Bromley as one of the 12 most desirable locations in the Midlands.

Grants available for arts projects around county

GRANTS for art projects in Staffordshire are now on offer. The Community Arts Fund is available to any arts organisation or community group planning an arts project or event in the county which involves and benefits members of the community.

County Council's culture chief Pat Corfield is now urging community groups and organisations to apply for the funding. He said: "The Community Arts Fund is one way the county council can support groups and organisations that have the imagination and enthusiasm to develop high quality projects, which benefit the community.

"This year organisations can apply for up to £800 towards the cost of their activity or event."

Tipping the Slag – a painting of industrial Black Country by Edwin Butler Bayliss (Picture: Christopher Bayliss)

Children playing on coal waste at The Lunt, Bilston, in the 1920s (Picture: Wolverhampton Archives)

A slice of Black Country landscape in 1948

'An angry sea of black shale'

THE work of the great Black Country painter Edwin Butler Bayliss now on display in Wolverhampton gives us an idea of what it must have felt like to look out over the pre-war landscape of the area.

In particular, it depicts a scene laid waste by mining and quarrying.

Air pollution of the Black Country is well known – it's how many believe it got its name. But the long-term abuse of the land surface is less widely understood.

"Unlike anything else in England" is how the historian William Hoskins described it in the 1950s – and he had travelled about a bit.

He likened it to a strange desert, "a black, tormented Sahara . . . the aftermath of robber-exploitation of the earth".

Ten years before, while planning post war Black Country housing estates, the architect Charles Reilly poetically described the area as 'an angry sea of black shale'.

But all this devastation wasn't a product of the 1950s or the 1940s.

by Paul Quigley

Landscape archaeologist, the distinctly black country network

We can follow the trail of evidence further back. In the early 1930s a planner wrote that the Black Country contained "twenty square miles where almost the only land not built up is covered by the refuse from disused pits".

Older evidence, in the photos of the 1920s for example, like the one here of kids playing on coal waste in Bilston, tells us that the state of dereliction has roots going further back.

Marked

In fact the problem of derelict land in the Black Country goes deep into the previous century.

One way we know this is a recent English Heritage study of the area – the Historic Landscape Characterisation.

This uses historic maps to trace the extent of dereliction. The map here is based on the study.

It shows the area of Dudley, Sandwell, Walsall, and Wolverhampton marked with all the derelict land in 1939. At that point there was 38 square kilometres of it (14 square miles) in a pattern which traced the whole South Staffordshire coalfield.

This might be shocking enough (it was probably the most intense concentration of derelict land in Britain at the time).

But the study reveals something else. It shows that nearly two-thirds of this neglected land had been in this state for at least 40 years.

Some was even older – two fifths of the waste land which existed in 1939 had lain around in that state since 1885 or before.

The fact is that, in the mid 19th century the unplanned rush to exploit mineral and other resources had brought the small area of the Black Country into a position of international economic significance.

But it left a long-lasting scar on the local environment which arguably is still visible in the area today.

Edwin Butler Bayliss: Poet Painter of the Black Country is at Wolverhampton Art Gallery until April 27.

The story behind Gregory's LEMONGRASS:

''I started my journey in the catering profession after secondary school education, in 1984. My father was my inspiration, Late Nicholas Gomes, who was a Butcher Chef in Dhaka Sheraton Hotel. This inspiration motivated my start in career as a 1st Trainee Chef in Hotel Ambassador, Bombay in 1985.

There is a portfolio of 5 star hotels around the world where I have been privileged to be employed. These include: Abu Dhabi Sheraton (Demi Chef De Partie), Holiday Inn Crowne Plaza, Dubai (Chef De Partie), Holiday Inn, Riyadh (Chef De Partie), Seagull Hotel, Bangladesh (Executive Chef) and Hotel Orchard Plaza, Bangladesh (Executive Chef). In 2004, I made my way to the United Kingdom as the Executive Chef for a renowned restaurant in Wolverhampton, followed by joining the team at another distinguished restaurant in Birmingham. The contributions and efforts for the restaurant were recognised by the renowned 'Good Food Guide'.

After all these accomplishments, I decided to concentrate my passion, enthusiasm and drive into my own restaurant. In order to make my dream come true I teamed up with other restaurant and business professionals and formed 'Lemongrass'.

The Story of Thai Chef

Mrs W Kamsing started work in 1999. She has worked all over the United Kingdom in top Thai restaurants. She has also worked at Thai Bangkok 5 star hotels.

Theatre visits up as leisure venues see numbers fall

ATTENDANCES have dropped at four major leisure venues in Cannock Chase, operators have revealed this week.

The delay in reopening the pool at Chase Leisure Centre is behind the biggest drop in the latest quarterly figures covering July, August and September.

They show that the centre received around 30,000 fewer visits than had been predicted in the three months under review.

However people are expected to flock back to the Stafford Road facility following the pool's recent reopening after an 18-month closure.

by Marion Brennan

Pricing

The number of people using Cannock Golf Course was also 53 per cent below target, attributed to a wet summer and a 22 per cent regional decline in sport. Membership pricing at the club has been reviewed and a new offer is to be launched to encourage more visits.

Visits to the Museum of Cannock Chase, in Valley Road, Hednesford, were down by 996, a nine per cent drop.

Rugeley Leisure Centre also suffered disappointing figures, which were explained by an inability to collect data for a week during a transfer of the centre's computer system.

However the number of theatregoers visiting the Prince of Wales Centre, in Church Street, Cannock, are up by 11 per cent over the past year.

The figures were compiled by Wigan Leisure and Culture Trust who took over the running of the venues from the district council.

The figures are due to be discussed at next Monday's culture and sport policy development committee meeting.

Chairman Councillor Alan Dudson said there were good reasons for the dip in numbers.

"We expect the attendances, particularly at Chase Leisure Centre, to have caught up by the end of the financial year," he said.

Friends mix it up with fitness class

Personal trainers Russel Skitt, left and Luke Grimley promote the fitness classes at Fitness First, Cannock

A FORMER teenage gymnast from Cannock has teamed up with a colleague to launch fitness classes with a difference.

Luke Grimley, aged 21, of South Close, met Russel Skitt at Fitness First on Vine Lane, where both work as personal trainers. He had previously taken part in national gymnastics competitions and was three times runner-up in the National Development Plan tournament in Stoke.

Now the former Cannock Chase High School student, who still teaches gymnastics classes, has joined his friend to launch MiXfit, a fitness class incorporating spinning exercises, circuit training, boot camp and core training.

Mr Skitt, 22, suffered from depression because of his weight during his school days at Wolgarston High School, in Penkridge and said he now wanted to help people to shed the pounds like he did.

The first session will be held at Fitness First on May 1, from 6.45am to 7.45am. The four-week course costs £60, covering 12 hour-long sessions at the same time on Wednesdays, Fridays and Sundays. Taster sessions will run on April 5, 9, 11 and 17. For more information call Luke on 07814 503 875.

Councillors show true grit to keep roads clear

Councillors Geoff Martin, left and John Rowley with the new gritter, which has ben a huge success in Rugeley

TWO Rugeley councillors have shown real grit and determination by helping to keep the town's side roads clear during wintry weather.

Rugeley Town councillors John Rowley and Geoff Martin have been deploying the authority's new gritter to clear smaller roads so that vulnerable residents can get out and about.

The gritting trailer was purchased by Rugeley Town Council a year ago and has proved a vital asset in the attempt to keep smaller side roads clear.

Bought in partnership with the county council for around £7,000, it is able to get down the smaller side streets that conventional trucks would struggle to get down.

Difficult

The 4x4 vehicle that pulls it along – and a number of the costs involved – were funded and run by the Councillors Rowley and Martin. Councillor Martin, also a county councillor said: "The recent weather has made it really difficult for people to get out of their homes. The nice thing is that it's really helping people, it's been a real pleasure seeing the smiles on people's faces.

"We are really pleased with the gritter – it's done a wonderful job."

Town clerk Naazlin Somani said: "We have loads of people ring up and say how good it is. People have been really impressed with the service."

Marie Curie Nurses

- The charity is best known for its network of 2,000 Marie Curie Nurses working in the community to provide end-of-life care, totally free for patients in their own homes.
- Last year we cared for more than 31,000 terminally ill patients in the community and in our nine hospices.
- There is a Marie Curie Nursing Service available to 96 per cent* of the UK.
- We mainly care for people with cancer but we also care for people with other life-limiting illnesses such as dementia, Motor Neurone Disease and heart failure.
- While four in five (79 per cent)[1] of the UK population are aware of Marie Curie Cancer Care, a survey[2] commissioned by the charity last year revealed the same percentage doesn't know if there is a Marie Curie Nursing Service available to them locally.
- Few also know how to access the service - just under half (48 percent) responded "don't know" when asked how they would go about getting a Marie Curie Nurse.
- To access a Marie Curie Nurse, patients and/or their carers should speak to their GP or District Nurse.

Marie Curie Hospices

- Marie Curie has nine hospices
- It is the largest provider of hospice beds outside the NHS .
- Marie Curie Hospices provide care for patients with cancer and other illnesses and provide support for families and carers, all completely free of charge.

Jean tunes up for town hall concert

Jean Martyn with members of the Gentlemen Songsters Male Voice Choir and Cotwall End Primary School Choir

BRITAIN'S Got Talent finalist Jean Martyn will join the Black Country's Gentlemen Songsters for their traditional spring concert this weekend.

Pupils from Cotwall End Primary School in Sedgley will also be performing alongside the choir.

The concert, which takes place at Dudley Town Hall on Saturday from 7.30pm, will be compered by Susie Riddell, who plays Tracey Horrobin on Radio 4's The Archers. Mayor of Dudley Councillor Melvin Mottram will join the choir to sing the first verse of one of the songs.

Jean, a former Cannock Chase High School music teacher, who now lives in Brewood, said: "I am very much looking forward to the concert – it's an absolute pleasure to be performing with the Gentlemen Songsters again.

£1 bid to buy canal stretch

PART of a derelict stretch of canal in Cannock could be sold for just £1 to a restoration group hoping to bring it back to its former glory.

The Lichfield and Hatherton Canals Restoration Trust (LHCT) is spending £50 million on opening up miles of the old Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal.

The group wants to purchase the former canal at Wedges Mills from the district council. Permission to sell the land for just £1 was likely to be granted by Cannock Chase Council's Cabinet today (Thursday).

Project

LHCT vice-chairman David Dixon said: "The overall project involves Hatherton Canal. This piece of land in Cannock is something we need to go towards completing the project."

The LHCT is planning to restore seven miles of the Hatherton Canal. It has already built new locks along part of the route. The canal is currently under water for only the first two miles from Calf Heath. Only a very short section is currently navigable.

Much of the remainder of the canal alignment has now been in-filled and lost to redevelopment. The stretch at Wedges Mills is only about 1,312ft long.

Cannock Chase Council acquired the Hatherton Branch canal from the British Waterways Board in 1963.

Extra pens at fire-hit cattery get green light

A CATTERY that was devastated by a fire that claimed the lives of 20 pets has been given the go-ahead to rebuild with 30 new pens.

Pinetrees Cattery in Stafford Road, Huntington, was ravaged by a blaze in January following an electrical fault in one of the pens.

The fire destroyed all but 10 enclosures and owner Lynn Durnall was unable to reopen until weeks later.

Mrs Durnall, who has run the cattery for almost 13 years, applied to South Staffordshire Council to rebuild and extend.

The council's regulatory committee gave the plans the green light at a meeting on Tuesday night.

Councillor Jeff Ashley, who represents Huntington and Hatherton, said: "This is a most welcome application. What happened earlier this year was devastating."

The proposals include 46 pens and self-contained heated sleeping quarters.

Owner in talks over preventing more fires

CATTERY owner Lynn Durnall has talked with fire chiefs about how to prevent similar disasters in the future.

Mrs Durnall, who plans more than 30 new pens at Pinetrees Cattery in Huntington, has smoke alarms and is to take other precautions.

Mrs Durnall, aged 50, has run the cattery for nearly 13 years. She said: "We have installed smoke alarms in the pens now being used.

"There's going to be a divider so if it happens again it will not spread so quickly. We are still in discussions with the fire authority. We are still talking about what we are going to do."

Pauline Bloomfield, of Cheslyn Hay, who lost three cats in the January fire, but recently adopted another, welcomed the plans for the cattery.

The 59-year-old mother-of-one, who cut short a holiday after hearing of the fire, said: "I'm glad smoke detectors have been installed and I think having the divider is a brilliant idea.

"I'm for any measures which could prevent this from happening again, whether it is a sprinkler system or anything else.

"I feel the cattery will be the safest in the country when she's done with it. I think all catteries should have those features. I feel Lynn is a very courageous woman."

Bookings

Mrs Durnall said: "We have been taking bookings. We've started taking cats in again. We've got a few of the regulars. We've also had a lot of new people coming in to have a look around.

"People have been very supportive. The hardest part has been turning people away when we couldn't take their cats."

The cattery employs six full-time staff and two part-time employees. It has received 80 cards and letters from well-wishers.

It had to close after the blaze killed all but two cats.

Mrs Durnall's own cat, 10-month-old Ollie, was badly burned. Three of her other cats died.

Friends in walk

THE Friends of Cannock Chase has announced its 2013/14 programme of events starting with a walk around Calf Heath Reservoir on April 20. A dawn chorus is on May 12 at The Hut, Milford, near Shugborough Hall. To join telephone 01543 571241.

MP offers office for care recruitment day

A RECRUITMENT open day will take place in Cannock tomorrow (Friday). It has been arranged by Chase MP Aidan Burley on behalf of care providers Home Instead Senior Care.

The event is open to people who want to work in the care sector and runs from 10am to midday at the MP's town centre office, in High Green Court.

Mr Burley said: "I am delighted to be able to offer my Help Zone to assist a firm who are looking to recruit and invest in training local people, as well as providing a vital service to those who need care at home. This is a fantastic opportunity to work in a rewarding and important role."

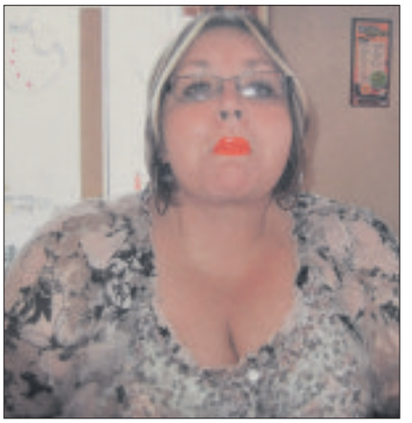
'Too-fat-to-fly' Julia sees weight drop off



Julia Jones, of Norton Canes before her weight loss

Super slimmer Julia, who lost more than nine stones

SUPER slimmer Julia Jones lost so much weight that her own daughter did not recognise her when she went to pick her up after a term away at university.

The 41-year-old, who has lost more than nine and a half stone, had not seen student Jasmine for nearly three months when she went to pick her up from Cannock railway station at Christmas. She said: "When she realised it was me, she burst into tears. It was a life-affirming moment."

The joyful scene was in complete contrast to a crushing moment nine months earlier when Julia was given a gift of flying lessons from her family for her 40th birthday. "I was too fat to fit in the plane, it was so humiliating," she said. "Thank goodness I found out when I was trying to book a slot online before I actually went to the airfield.

" It had been a dream of mine to fly – that was the point at which I resolved once and for all to lose weight."

Unhappy

Julia, of Brownhills Road, Norton Canes, can remember being teased over her size and left school without taking her exams with her confidence at zero. This in turn led to an unhappy marriage, she said.

She first lost weight after leaving her husband and starting a new life, including enrolling at college at the age of 28 to take her O-levels and going on to take a university degree in business studies. She lost 11 and a half stone but slowly put it all back on after meeting her current partner John. In February 2007 she enrolled on a nursing degree course at Wolverhampton University but had to abandon her studies after injuring her back on the wards at Walsall Manor Hospital.

"I felt embarrassed just walking around," said Julia. "I knew that once I could lose weight, other things would fall into place."

She has substituted her old diet of buttered toast, crisps, chocolate and takeaways with fruit, pasta, chicken and yoghurts, and spends three hours in the gym at Chase Leisure Centre three or four times a week.

She is starting her own slimming classes at Our Lady of Lourdes Church in Hednesford in April and Chasetown Methodist Church in May.

BOOKS

Awfully pleased to visit – at least you're not Rhyl

Travel writer Tim Moore

The cover of Tim Moore's new book on a tour of unfashionable Britain

THE British obsession with the worst things in life is a national pursuit along with queuing and tea, which is why Tim Moore's latest travelogue will appeal to many.

You Are Awful (But I Like You): Travels Through Unloved Britain, is an account of the London author's trip around what have been labelled some of the country's worst towns and cities by studies put together by research groups.

Itinerary

This book will make you laugh right from the start, with his choice of transport being an old Austin Montego, named Ozzy, that was designed in Longbridge but built in Bulgaria.

Black Country folk may be surprised that Walsall was on his itinerary. Apparently Tim decided to visit because a survey found Walsall to be Britain's most depressed town.

He braves the A34 and goes to the town's leather museum.

But take heart Walsall folk, in an interview with The Chronicle, Tim reveals it was one of his favourite stops.

He said: "In comparison to some of the places I went to, Walsall felt like the French Riviera. It was actually doing something with itself, unlike most of the other towns I visited."

Each town is a subject for wry humour though in each place he visits he manages to find a glimmer of hope – except maybe for one faded North Wales seaside resort.

Tim said: "Rhyl was easily the most depressing place I went to. The town had invested loads of money into developing itself by knocking down a lot of beautiful Victorian architecture and building a horrible B&Q. The town died soon after."

This book should be considered a collection of short stories linked by a common theme.

It is a brilliant book to dip in and out of. For those that love the works of rambling travel authors such as Bill Bryson this will be a perfect addition to their collection.

This tale of one man and his awful car is published by Vintage Books, priced £7.99.

THIS Easter holiday, children can take part in a hunt for giant Easter Eggs with an RAF roundel on them, hidden amongst the aircraft on display at RAF Museum Cosford.

Each Egg hunter will need to find where all of the giant eggs are hidden and make a note of the code letters using their trail sheet. After finding all of the eggs, children can decipher the secret word in order to claim their prize.

RAF Museum Cosford can be enjoyed whatever the weather. There are lots of impressive exhibits and plenty of hands-on fun, whether investigating air flow with 'The Blower' or guiding a Hercules. REVIEWS

Top marks for efforts

Footloose, Grand Theatre, Wolverhampton

TOP marks for Wolverhampton Musical Comedy Company's excellent production. Amazing vocals and slick dance routines showcased the incredible talents of this energetic young cast.

David Walters and Holly Stringfellow were perfect as Ren and Ariel. Also strong were Chris Wolverson, Rose Lister and Kathryn Fisher. Alec White was brilliant as Willard and there were exceptional vocals from Franchesca Fogoe, Niamh Allen and Claudia Gilmour. Les Jowett

Legends start the party

The Dublin Legends, Town Hall, Birmingham

THE Dublin Legends, made up of the remnants of the legendary Dubliners, kicked off the Second City's St Patrick's celebrations

Sean Cannon, Patsy Watchorn, Eamonn Campbell and Gerry O'Connor brought old familiars – and a few new twists – to an appreciative crowd.

Fans lapped up a string of Dubliners favourites before the band went out with Irish Rover, Whiskey In The Jar and threw in Wild Rover as an encore. Danny Farragher

Mystery over accent

Roddy Woomble, Glee Club, Birmingham

IT'S flying in the face of general opinion but, based on this performance, it's hard to see if Roddy Woomble deserves the praise heaped on him. He is as Scottish as tartan and single malts so it's a mys-tery why he sings in a generic American accent.

His voice is good but not exceptional, there was a distinct lack of enthusiasm both from him and his audience and the harmonies with singer and fiddle player Seonaid Aitken didn't quite blend. Danny Farragher

Still playing with gusto

The Fureys and Davey Arthur, Concert Hall, Dudley

EVEN after more than 30 years of touring and recording, The Fureys have lost none of their gusto for playing and carrying on the Irish tradition of telling tall stories.

They soon got the crowd warmed up with old favourite From Clare to Here.

They then toned it down with The Old Man, which Eddie and Finbar use as a poignant tribute to their dad.

The quartet mixed it up with a medley of jigs and reels, throwing in a little Scottish culture with Leezie Lindsay. Davey Arthur made his presence felt the with The Mad Lady and Me.

Another medley of jigs came before the first half finished with their biggest hit When You Were Sweet Sixteen.

One of the highlights was Finbar's own tune The Lonesome Boatman.

They finished off with some of their best known songs The Red Rose Cafe, Green Fields of France and then went out on Go Lassie Go. Danny Farragher

Velvet voice from the Valleys is back

The Stereophonics, Wolverhampton Civic Hall

AFTER a spell away from the limelight, Welsh rockers The Stereophonics roared back into action at a full to capacity Civic Hall on Saturday.

And how the fans have missed them. In a chart landscape dominated by talent show popIt was good to hear a real band again, cranking out blistering guitar solos and shaking the venerable rock venue to its core.

Singer, guitarist and chief songwriter Kelly Jones's sandpaper and velvet rasp is one of the classic rock voices.

Kelly Jones on stage

Opening with melodic rock anthem We Share The Same Sun, this was a gig in which old favourites were balanced by tracks from latest album, Graffiti On The Train.

New songs, including Indian Summer and Roll The Dice, were embraced by the fans as enthusiastically as the older hits, including Maybe Tomorrow, Just Looking and Mr Writer.

Despite Kelly teasing the crowd about Wales' rugby win over England, the powerhouse five-piece were welcomed back for an encore featuring Have A Nice Day and Dakota. They are at the LG Arena on November 19. Leon Burakowski

More than just a one man band

The Script, LG Arena, Birmingham,

"TOGETHER we cry," sang Danny O'Donoghue and the hysterical girls in the front row took it literally when asked to join in.

However, rail operators hadn't read the script as their train cancellation meant we missed the start.

It mattered not in the end as Danny and co went through their big songs from albums one, two and #3. On the eve of St Patrick's Day it was fitting to see the Irish colours on Danny's microphone.

Mark Sheehan and Glen Power proved the Dublin lads are not a one man band. Highlight for me was Danny calling a fan's ex to sing to him the song 'Nothing'.

The set ended with Danny taking the stage with an Olympic-style torch for Hall of Fame. Mark Shipp

NEWS

Get behind fight is plea to campaigner

A SENIOR hospital governor is calling on Cure The NHS campaigner Julie Bailey to get behind a fight to save crucial services at Stafford and Cannock hospitals.

Mike Fowkes, lead governor at Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust, said Mrs Bailey should drop her fight to get NHS chief executive Sir David Nicholson sacked in favour of more positive action.

He warned governors that fighting the Monitor report would be an uphill struggle, adding: "The NHS has to make £20 billion savings and there seems to be a strategy that small hospitals are going to close or be merged," he said.

"The reputation of Mid Staffs isn't helping and I call on Julie Bailey and Cure The NHS to come here and get behind the groups trying to save this hospital for the future."

Mr Fowkes was concerned at the prospect of losing services like maternity, rheumatology and orthopaedics.

Challenges lie ahead as trust boss set to retire

LEADING political figures and campaigners said challenges lay ahead for Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust after its chief executive announced she was stepping down at the end of May.

Lyn Hill-Tout was appointed chief executive to replace troubleshooter Antony Sumara in June 2011.

Stafford MP Jeremy Lefroy said: "The challenge now for Stafford is to ensure we build on Lyn's work and have a new chief executive in place who will dedicate themselves 100 per cent to the hospital and ensuring the outcome of Monitor's review is a safe, sustainable hospital that delivers the services we need, including emergency, acute and maternity.

"Lyn has been a champion for Stafford since her appointment as chief executive.

"I pay tribute to her for the work she has done to help restore confidence in the hospital."

Lyn Hill-Tout – retiring

Critical

Stafford Borough Council leader, Councillor Mike Heenan, said he was "disappointed" Mrs Hill-Tout was departing with the trust facing such a critical period in the next few months.

He said: "It will be a sad loss to the Mid Staffordshire Hospital NHS Trust. I think she has done a very good job in turning round the difficulties that there were."

Mrs Hill-Tout joined the trust following a period of scandal at Stafford Hospital where 1,200 people are said to have died between 2005 and 2008.

Robert Francis QC launched a full public inquiry. In February he delivered his long-awaited 1,700-word report into what went wrong at Stafford Hospital and how the NHS must be improved for the future.

Mrs Hill-Tout said: "It has been a great privilege to have had worked for the National Health Service and to have undertaken a wide range of rewarding roles in the most important and complex public sector service.

"Throughout my career I have worked with dedicated and talented people who have strived to provide the very best health care for their patients and communities and this is particularly true of my colleagues at Mid Staffordshire."

Professor John Caldwell, chairman of the trust, said: "Lyn's multiple contributions to MSFT, to the community of Staffordshire and to the NHS will be sorely missed."

MP calls to put end to 'scaremongering'

MP Aidan Burley hopes to set the record straight and call an end to "scaremongering" over the future of Cannock Hospital. The MP has called series of public meetings.

Mr Burley has asked Shadow Health Secretary Andy Burnham to speak to Cannock Chase District Cou-ncil leader George Adamson and Labour's Prospective Parliamentary candidate Janos Toth about what he said was their spreading of false 'privatisation' plans.

Mr Burley called for Cannock's Labour representatives to stop "scaremongering among local people for political ends."

"There are no plans in the Monitor report to privatise Cannock Hospital. They cannot fight privatisation if there are no plans to privatise anything," he said.

In order to better explain proposed changes to healthcare in Mid Staffordshire Mr Burley has organised a series of public meetings. The first takes place tomorrow (Friday) at Cannock Wood Village Hall in Buds Road from 6-7pm.

Rugeley

St Augustine's Church in Rugeley was built in 1882 and features memorials to the Levett family who established the Rugeley Home and Cottage Hospital on Church Street in 1866. It also houses the tombstone of John Parsons Cook, victim of the town's most notorious inhabitant William Palmer, aka The Poisoner.

Dr Palmer, born in 1824 and educated at the local grammar school, owed money to Parsons Cook, a bookmaker, and after a 12-day trial was found guilty of his murder. He was publicly executed in Stafford. The tale was featured in a TV documentary starring Keith Allen as Palmer.

Another notorious Rugeley tale is that of Christina Collins, who was killed by boatmen as she travelled to London to be with her husband. Her body was carried up what are now known as the Bloody Steps by the Trent & Mersey Canal in June 1839. Christina's grave can also be seen today in the churchyard at St Augustine's. Three of the four bargemen were charged with her murder. The story of her murder was the inspiration for an Inspector Morse mystery entitled The Wench Is Dead.

Rugeley

Twinned with Western Springs, Illinois, Rugeley is an historic market town in Cannock Chase. The River Trent runs alongside the town, which has a population of more than 22,000 inhabitants, including the wards of Etching Hill and Brereton.

The town is listed in Domesday book and was historically known as Rudgeley or Ridgeley, thought to be derived from 'Ridge lee', or 'the hill over the field'. In the mediaeval period, it thrived on iron workings and was also a site of glass manufacturing. During the Industrial Revolution the economy of Rugeley benefited from the construction of the Trent & Mersey Canal ahead of becoming a notable junction on the railway network. Today, the town is served by Rugeley Town and Rugeley Trent Valley stations, offering passenger links to the likes of London and Birmingham. A new eastern bypass was opened in 2007 and a new leisure centre, in Burnthill Lane, opened a year earlier and includes a modern swimming pool.

Lea Hall Colliery opened in July 1960 and was the first modern pit opened by the National Coal Board. It closed in 1990. With the construction of its A and B power stations Rugeley became a major centre for electricity generation. Next to the power plant Amazon.co.uk is utilising a warehouse, closed since 1990, as a major distribution centre.

Rugeley market is held three days a week, while its major shopping precinct is the Brewery Street arcade.

Rugeley

The opening of a new McDonald's restaurant last October has added to the regeneration of the town.

A further 250 jobs will also be created at a new Tesco superstore.

The 40,000 sq ft supermarket will be built on the former Celcon Blockworks site and adjoining land at Power Station Road/Leathermill Land. It will include a separate restaurant and petrol station.

Rugeley also has a state-of-the-art health centre off Sandy Lane, a replacement for its predecessor on Horsefair.

Residents are well served by entertainment in the form of the Rose Theatre and community centre, in Taylors Lane, which has also recently undergone a major revamp. There is a recording studio, Abbeysound, housed in a former convent in Heron Street, which is also home to Rugeley Snooker & Poker Clubs

The Lea Hall Social Club underwent extensive renovation between 2005 and 2011 and serves Rugeley residents with a variety of facilities including cricket and football pitches, tennis courts and a crown bowling green. Etching Hill has its own tennis club.

Modern pubs include the Glass Works in Brewery Street and the Plaza, the old town cinema converted by Wetherspoon's. There annual Charter Fair in June is always a big draw, while the Christmas lights switch-on during in December remains popular.

REVIEW

Praise for the young performers

Review – Sing for Their Supper, Prince of Wales, Cannock

YOUNG performers did themselves – and their families – proud in this charity night, compered by Rugeley actor Gerry Hinks.

From the Catholic schools' pyramid's Oliver! numbers to the Chase High School pop choir, conducted by Sian Forbes, there was a mix of genres from such a wealth of talent.

Follow That Dream finalists Victoria Tew, Luke Groves and Grace Wyatt had already proved themselves accomplished performers, while others showed they have a bright future ahead. Theatre First's four chords medley was particularly genius.

The big winners of the night, however, were NSPCC and Save The Children, who took home £1,000 each for their respective charities.

Mark Shipp

Indie rock band in town pub date

LOCAL modern indie rock band The Rock Dogs perform at The Grapes in Stafford tomorrow night (Friday).

Their set will include covers from the likes of Kings of Leon, Rolling Stones, Maroon 5, Foo Fighters and Robbie Williams.

The gig starts at 10pm and the bar will be open until 2am.

Veteran acts turn back the clock to rock again

SOME of the most popular rock bands from the 1980s and '90s are back on the road this spring with concerts planned in Wolverhampton and Birmingham.

Cult favourites The Inspiral Carpets and angry rockers Skunk Aanasie are both in action tonight (Thursday).

Clint Boon's Inspiral Carpets, favourites on the 'Madchester' scene recently released their first new material in 15 years, and will be peforming their debut album Life in its entirety at Birmingham's O2 Academy 2.

Jim Kerr of Simple Minds

Meanwhile, '90s favourites Skunk Anansie, fronted by the formidable Skin, have a gig at Wolverhampton Civic Hall.

The Beat will be getting folks to Twist And Crawl at The Slade Rooms on Saturday, the same venue melodic punk legends The Buzzcocks play on April 4.

Greatest

Jim Kerr's Simple Minds are back to claim a Glittering Prize on their greatest hits tour at Wolverhampton Civic Hall on April 6.

Mike Peters of The Alarm takes the singer role when Big Country play the Wulfrun Hall on April 24. James bring the Gathering Sound tour to Birmingham O2 Academy on April 25 with guests Echo And The Bunnymen. Synth pioneers OMD are at Birmingham Town Hall on April 29.

Music and surreal comedy from Hull-born entertainer Boothby Graffoe, who is a sometimes collaborator with Canadian band The Barenaked Ladies

Creative musical comedy

STAND-UP comedian and singer of surreal songs, the multi-talented and eccentric Boothby Graffoe, brings his unique musical comedy to the region this weekend.

His No Mad, No Sane Either tour calls at The Glee Club, in The Arcadian Centre, off Hurst Street, Birmingham, tonight (Thursday), doors open 8pm. Then Graffoe, who takes his stage name from a town in Lincolnshire, has a gig at Wolverhampton venue The Arena, in Wulfruna Street, tomorrow night (Friday) at 8pm.

Other comedy highglights include Justin Moorhouse at The Slade Rooms in Wolverhampton tonight (Thursday) and Richard Herring will be talking about an sensitive part of his anatomy at the same venue tomorrow night (Friday).

Feelgood factor from 70s group

SEVENTIES band Dr Feelgood perform at Cannock's Prince of Wales Centre next month.

Formed in Canvey Island, Essex, the band enjoyed chart success with Milk and Alcohol, with See You Later Alligator also among their big hits.

The current line up features Kevin Morris on drums and Phil Mitchell on bass, both 29 years in the band and Steve Walwyn on guitar who has been with the band for 23 years.

Addition

Vocalist Robert Kane, formerly of the Animals, is the most recent addition – joining in 1999 after the tragic death of Lee Brilleaux.

The Prince of Wales date is on Saturday, April 13 at 8pm, with tickets priced at £16.50.

Call the Church Street venue's box office on 01543 578762.

Sarah Beeny's Selling Houses
Channel 4, 7pm
Remember Property Ladder, when some of the would-be developers had seemingly sketched their renovation plans on the back of a beer mat, but still went on to make a healthy profit? Well, it seems those days are long gone – now Sarah Beeny is coming to the aid of people who are having trouble selling their own homes. According to the old rules of The House Doctor, Rebecca should have a head start, as her home is already neutral – but could it be that her love of magnolia is actually putting buyers off her detached house?

Time Team
Channel 4, 5.30pm

It's hard to believe that it wasn't Time Team that uncovered Richard III in that Leicester car park. It seems like only yesterday that the programme was launched, but after 20 years of hard work and exciting family entertainment, its experts will down tools this year. Having invested £4million pounds in British archaeology, Time Team will leave a mark not just on the hearts TV viewers but on British historical research. Tony Robinson celebrates the show's achievements, from its beginnings in a Somerset field, to excavating Buckingham Palace's garden.

Pick of the Week

The only thing getting hot and cross is the buns

These days, you'd be hard pushed to find anyone who isn't a fan of The Great British Bake Off.

Something about the gentle, kindly nature of the show, and its judges Mary Berry and Paul Hollywood, serves as the perfect antithesis to the veritable glut of talent shows that dominate the schedules with their frequently barbed, scathing comments which seem designed to give contestants a nervous breakdown.

Things never get too personal in the safety of the Bake Off kitchen, and although Paul has been known to set the odd bottom lip wobbling when he's deemed a bake too uneven or a bottom too soggy, on the whole his and Mary's criticisms are well received – after all, they are experts in their field.

So, there are few pairings better placed to offer a masterclass on baking than these two.

They gave us a helping hand last Christmas when they provided top tips on everything from perfect puds to mega mince pies, and now they're back with The Great British Bake Off Easter Masterclass (BBC2, 8pm), to help us cope with the trials and tribulations that Easter baking represents.

The kids are at home for a fortnight, and the grown-ups get a four-day weekend, so it's the perfect time to get busy in the kitchen.

However, there's always a few pitfalls to avoid, as well as a few expert tips that really, if you'll excuse the expression, put the icing on the cake – and here, Mary and Paul explain them all.

They give step-by-step instructions, including easy to follow demonstrations of some of their favourite seasonal recipes, giving us all the best possible chance of replicating their successes.

Among the treats on offer are perfect hot cross buns, without which no Easter would truly be complete.

Another traditional treat for the time of year is simnel cake, a light fruitcake traditionally enjoyed after Lent, for which the pair have a sumptuous recipe. So far, so good, but this is Easter – where is the chocolate?

Well, there's a guide to creating delicious chocolate custard tarts – perfect for using up any spare bits of Easter Eggs that may be lying around (although that's not usually too much of an issue for many households).

Also on the menu is a zingy and refreshing lemon meringue nest serves as the perfect accompaniment to the rich cuisine on offer.

With all these sweet treats to sample, one might be worried about piling on the pounds – but you only have to look at Mary to know that striking a balance isn't impossible.

As she told the Guardian recently, "It's all about things in moderation.

I do eat a good portion all the way through the Bake Off – because they've taken the trouble to make something, their parents are watching, and they want to see me have a proper slice.

The next day I'm pretty careful. I do try to eat lots of salads and healthy foods.

But cakes are healthy too – you just eat a thin slice. There's a lot of cheer in a cake."

The Great British Bake Off Easter Masterclass, Tuesday, BBC2, 8pm

Best of the Rest

Monday
Boris Johnson: The Irresistible Rise
BBC2, 9pm
Some think he's a national embarrassment, others find him endearingly eccentric. Love him or loathe him, Boris Johnson is arguably the most recognisable face in British politics. From his appearances on Have I Got News For You to his position as Mayor of London, he has a degree of accessibility and personality that otherwise seems to be immensely lacking in modern politics, leading some to tip him as a future Prime Minister. In candid interviews, Michael Cockerell reveals the real Boris Johnson, showing sides of him that few have seen, including his tangled love-life and his working relationship with David Cameron. There's more to the man than perhaps many even realise.

Tuesday
Live International Football
ITV, 7.30pm
Roy Hodgson takes his England side to Podgorica City Stadium for a 2014 World Cup Group H qualifying fixture against Montenegro, who have proved to be the surprise package of the campaign so far. Branko Brnović's men sat atop the group following their opening four fixtures and were on a three-match winning streak in competitive encounters heading into their clash with Moldova on Friday. Meanwhile, the Three Lions have already dropped points against both Poland and Ukraine, and will be keen to find some consistency as they aim to book a place at the finals in Brazil, but don't have the best of records against the relatively young eastern European nation.

Wednesday
Lightfields
ITV, 9pm
The spooky drama comes to an end this week with the Felwoods in 1944 believing it's time to leave Lightfields – it holds too many memories of Lucy that they would rather forget. In 1975, Vivien goes missing, and it's up to Clare, with help from Tom, to find her. When she's eventually located, the troubled woman is on the verge of remembering what happened on a fateful night many moons ago. Finally, in 2012, Luke is missing and his grandparents begin to wonder if Lucy has taken him. But she isn't the only person who may endanger the lad, while a B&B guest with links to Pip's past has a shocking story to tell.

Pompeii: The Mystery of the People Frozen in Time
BBC1, 9pm
Margaret Mountford may be best known for lurking in the background of The Apprentice, raising her eyebrows at some of the contestants' dafter remarks, but she also has a keen interest in ancient history – she even stepped down from her role as Alan Sugar's right-hand woman to finish her PhD in Papyrology. Now, she's sharing her enthusiasm in this one-off documentary, which sees her investigating the events of 79AD, when a volcanic disaster left the citizens of Pompeii preserved in ashes.

Lightfields, Wednesday, ITV, 9pm

Thursday
Kids with Tourette's: In Their Own Words
ITV, 9pm
Growing up is tough for children these days, although while most will fret about maths homework and playing kiss chase in the school playground, the few featured in this insightful documentary have a far rougher ride. Connor, Callum and Marco are affected by Tourette's Syndrome, but while there's no cure for them, hope comes in the form of a pioneering treatment programme at Great Ormond Street Hospital. Cameras have followed the boys and their families over a six-month period, as they have their say about living with the condition, and the obstacles they face on a daily basis.

Imagine: Beyonce – Life Is But a Dream
BBC1, 10.35pm
She's the singer, songwriter, actress, entrepreneur, wife and mother with 16 Grammy awards to her name, who once got most of Glastonbury doing the Single Ladies dance. Yes, we're talking about Beyonce, the former Destiny's Child member turned solo superstar. But while she's one of the most high-profile women in the world, how much do we really know about her? Well, we're about to discover a whole lot more, as Beyonce adds 'director' to her résumé, and brings us this documentary, which offers a unique insight into her life. And if you're slightly surprised to see this film appearing under the BBC's Imagine arts banner, forget the musical snobbery – Alan Yentob also profiled rapper Jay-Z, way back in 2008.

Friday
Piers Morgan's Life Stories: Britt Ekland
ITV, 9pm
Britt Ekland came to the UK in 1964 and was immediately swept off her feet by Peter Sellers, who asked her to marry him following a whirlwind, 10-day romance. She agreed, but the union, which produced their daughter, Victoria, lasted just four years. Her other most notable partners include Warren Beatty, Rod Stewart, George Hamilton and Patrick Lichfield. Here, Ekland talks about her life and career.

Ancient Egypt: Life and Death in the Valley of the Kings
BBC2, 9pm
The two-part documentary, which began last week, draws to a close tonight – what more surprises can Egyptologist Joann Fletcher possibly have in store? Well, as she clambers into rarely visited tombs, explores a treasure trove of long-buried objects and examines mummies, we find she has a lot of astounding facts up her sleeves. She explains how, 3,500 years ago, life was little more than a dress rehearsal for the perfect afterlife.

Dealer launches demonstrators fleet

Jason Jackson and Ben Esp from Greenhous with the new range of commercial demonstrators

GREENHOUS has launched of a full fleet of commercial demonstrators.

They will include the complete Vauxhall van range and will allow the customer to test the vehicle for an extended period before they decide to make a purchase.

This follows on from an extremely successful year for Greenhous after the only Vauxhall commercial dealer in the county achieved the number one retail market share in commercial vehicles for 2012.

The company has recently merged its three sites in Telford, Shrewsbury and Willenhall and now stocks over 150 vans.

Ben Esp, van sales supervisor, believes the demonstrators will set Greenhous apart from competitors.

Variety

"We are extremely excited about the new demos which are sure to enhance our strengthening commercials team.

"As the only Vauxhall commercial dealer in the county, we are keen to develop our services in order to give the customer the best experience possible."

Ben explains: "We want to give the customer the chance to fully test the potential of the van before making a purchase by allowing them to take their chosen model away with them for up to three days.

"This means they can use the van in a realistic business environment to get a feel for whether the van is suitable for their individual needs. We currently have two of each model which will be available from all three branches; the Corsavan, Astravan, Combo, Vivaro and Movano Panel and Dropside.

"The variety of models available means that the demos can be used by anyone, whether it's for local businesses or sole traders."

Ben also said that having a van specialist at each of the commercial sites ensures the customer receives expert advice before purchasing a vehicle or testing a demo.

"It is incredibly important that expert knowledge is available to advise on which vehicle is best suited to the individual," he said.

"With the Vauxhall product range becoming increasingly advanced and with many optional variations available, our specialists are on hand to help the customer understand the range and help to choose the right van."

Ben concluded: "With the largest market share in both light and heavy commercial's and the recent merging of our three sites, Greenhous commercial vehicles is stronger than ever.

"We are by far the biggest in the area with the most expertise and experience along with the largest range of models.

"The introduction of the demonstrators will enhance our services further and we are looking forward to getting the fleet on the road."

To book a demonstrator, call Ben on 01952 265403.

The Fiat Panda, first car in the world to be equipped with the new 0.9 TwinAir Turbo Natural Power engine

Fiat is leading Europe with the lowest CO2 emissions

In 2012, for the sixth consecutive year Fiat has been confirmed as the brand with the lowest average CO2 emissions in Europe among the best-selling automotive brands, with an average of 119.8g/km.

The record is certified by JATO Dynamics, the world's leading provider of automotive intelligence.

This is an important achievement and proof of Fiat's commitment to sustainable mobility: in the past six years, Fiat has reduced its average CO2 emissions by about 13 per cent from 137.3 to 119.8g/km, a result that is significantly lower than the average target set by the European Union for 2015 (130g/km).

Among the various technologies introduced throughout the year, the new 0.9 TwinAir Turbo Natural Power engine is an 80hp bi-fuel (natural gas/gasoline) two-cylinder engine which combines the ecological advantages of CNG fuel with the power and driving fun of TwinAir technology.

The Fiat Panda was the first car in the world to be equipped with this innovative engine which guarantees reduced levels of CO2 (86g/km), among the lowest value on the market.

Fiat Group has been Europe's leading producer of Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM) natural gas vehicles for more than 15 years. It offers the largest eco-friendly bi-fuel (natural gas/gasoline) range, satisfying the needs of a wide variety of private and commercial consumers. From 1997 to 2012, Fiat sold more than 500,000 Natural Power cars and commercial vehicles. In addition to the new engine, Fiat believes that the environmental impact of vehicles is strongly influenced by consumer's driving behaviour.

Fiat continues to invest in eco:Drive, an application that improves driving styles by giving personalised recommendations for reducing emissions, saving fuel and quantifying economic advantages.

In 2012, the eco:Drive mobile application was created and made immediate feedback possible through smartphones. With the launch of 500L, the next generation eco:Drive Live was introduced and allows the user to monitor driving style in real time on the radio display.

Today, approximately 90,000 eco:Drive users are saving 5,000 tons of CO2 per year.

Walkover is table boost

BURNTWOOD rugby club climbed another place in Midlands Three West (North) without playing.

Opponents Cleobury Mortimer were unable to raise a side to travel to The Sportsway and Ian Jones' side were awarded a five-point walkover to take them to fifth place.

This Saturday the firsts face a stiff test at home to Stourbridge Lions who retained their Midlands Senior Vase title by beating Old Leamintonians 10-3 last weekend.

The visitors now host Selby in the national semi-final on Easter Saturday with a Twickenham final the winners' reward.

Burntwood seconds visit Lichfield thirds on Saturday.

Bar forget relegation fears in cup shock

Cannock Chase Cup Round Three

FIRST Division Bar Sports, facing the dreaded drop with only two league wins, famously knocked out Premier League Brereton Town to reach the quarter-finals.

Trailing 1-0 at the break, Sports equalised through Karl Smith with a rebound from a free-kick and got the winner when Andy Alden nutmegged the advancing keeper.

Yates Sports knocked out Belt Road 3-1 to play Second Division Hawkins Inex next. First-half goals from Tom Green, Reis Nadat and Steve Jones followed by a great defensive performance in the second half brought the win.

Cannock Chase League

Cannock Charity Cup Round Three

Jubilee from Division Five pulled off a shock 4-1 away win against Second Division Broomhill Albion with goals from Kirk Wilding, Martin Davies, Carl Patrick and Brett Lillburn. Cannock Social beat Pied Piper 4-2 with a brace from Matty Aish and one each for James Massey and Dan Phillips.

Ron Terry Cup Round Two

Bridge beat TNT 4-2. Brett Jenkinson, Dan Kalinski, Lee Tayor and Andy Beltcher scored. Winding Wheel beat Ascot 9-2.

Division Two

Leaders CK Academy are nine points clear after beating Hawkins Inex 2-0. Ben Farrell and Dan Lomas scored.

Cheslyn Hay Ath twice came from behind against Victoria Ath to score four second-half goals and win 5-2. Shaun Pearce converted two penalties and Graham Roberts, Andy Grocutt and Will Lushey added a goal each.

Victoria's fight against relegation picked up with a 7-1 thrashing of Colliers Arms.

Division Three

Trafalgar stayed top by beating Yew Tree 6-0 – their eighth win on the trot. A hat-trick for Dayne Boguslawski, two goals for Ant Penwright and one from Brad Rushton brought victory.

Freemans went second by beating Railway 3-0 thanks to goals from Shaun Talbot, Greg Alan and Jimmy Hemmings.

Royal Exchange beat Cannock & Rugeley 5-2, Ryan Chapman lobbing the keeper three times for a hat-trick with Ryan Roberts and Martin Wilcox also on target.

Lamb & Flag beat Lea Hall Utd 5-0. Player-manager Adam Bradbury opened the scoring followed by Alan Smith, Ash Dodd, Adam Dunning and Eddie Instone and went fifth. Crystal Fountain climbed out of the relegation zone by thrashing fourth placed Rugeley Rangers 7-1.

Division Four Cup Quarter-finals

Unbeaten league leaders Green Heath just edged out Castle 2-1 with Aaron Evans and Stuart Evans scoring. Hazel Slade knocked out AFC Fern 7-0. Adam Green scored five goals and there were two for Craig Holland.

In the league, Wyrley Juniors climbed three places after they beat Essington 5-3.

Weary Cannock fail to hit semi-final winner

Cannock 2 Hampstead & Westminster 2
(H'stead win on penalties after extra time; full-time score 2-2)

A CANNOCK side left weary by their home league defeat on Saturday lost this cup semi-final the following day on penalty strokes.

Hampstead took an early lead against the run of play and held it to half-time. In driving rain, Cannock failed to find the fluency on the heavy pitch. But the half-time break rejuvenated them and they fired from the off.

Peter Jackson equalised from a penalty corner high to the keeper's left.

Cannock created a number of good chances but they went begging. Eventually, Matt Plunkett netted to give Cannock the lead after some fine interplay with Nick Bandurak.

With five minutes to go, a critical turnover in the D gave Hampstead their only chance of the second half. They took it and forced extra time.

Cannock again were in the ascendancy, but failed to force a winner. The game went to penalty strokes but Cannock failed with their first two and although Jackson netted, Hampstead hit the target to take them to the finals against Surbiton.

Cannock 8 Burton 2

Cannock seconds continued dominanting the MRHA Midlands Premier League with a convincing win over bottom side Burton. Dippa Sandhar scored a hat-trick, Will Fleet and Stuart Gooderham hit two each and Josh Gunnell also scored .

Beeston 1 Cannock 4

The thirds, already confirmed as champions, won after coming under some early pressure.

Their goal bore a charmed life at times, but they pulled through with left-half Rich Parker giving his best display of the season.

Cannock took the lead when Hyde won the ball high up the pitch and gave Martin the simplest of tasks.

But Martin restored the Cannock advantage and goals for Morris and Parker ensured the win.

Cannock 11
Nottingham University 2

The fourths have taken their foot off the pedal since clinching the title, their last two matches a defeat and a draw. But they were back on form, leading 7-0 at the break. Jeevan Dhanda finished with a hat-trick; there were two goals apiece for Alex Hill, George Southall and Callum Swinnterton-Ions while Andy Hodgetts also scored and the students conceded an own goal.

Results: Cannock fifths 3 Worcester 5, Cannock sixths 6 Lichfield 1, Cannock Futures 6 Old Wulfs 0, Cannock Badgers Whites 4 Cannock Badgers Maroons 3.

Swimmers make a splashing start to the year

Cannock Phoenix's busy swimmers face the camera to display the awards they won at the recent open gala

SWIMMERS from the Cannock Phoenix club are celebrating success at their open gala.

They have made an action-packed start to 2013, coming top on points out of 27 clubs competing at the gala ahead of Winsford SC and Bilston SC.

Some 32 Phoenix swimmers also took part in the Staffordshire ASA county championships, landing several awards and recording numerous personal bests.

Phoenix also won the first round of the Staffordshire County Swimming League, heading Chase SC, Stafford Apex SC, Walsall SC, Lichfield SC and Burntwood SC.

Head coach Luke Thomas has been delighted with the effort and commitment shown by all swimmers across the age group. And he reckons there is still more improvement to come from the Phoenix squad.

For information about the club, visit www.cannockswimmingclub.org or see the Phoenix Facebook page.

Saddlers swoop for United's keeper

PLAY-OFF chasing Walsall have swooped to sign Manchester United goalkeeping starlet Sam Johnstone on loan until the end of the season, writes Nick Mashiter.

The 19-year-old becomes the Saddlers' fifth shot-stopper of the campaign and replaces Aaron McCarey, recalled by Wolves after Carl Ikeme's freak hand injury.

Johnstone, an England under-19 international, is in line for his debut in Saturday's trip to Hartlepool with the Saddlers three points off the League One play-offs.

And boss Dean Smith reckons the new-boy is ready to be thrown into Walsall's promotion push.

"It was unfortunate Aaron was recalled, but he will be replaced by a very able lad in Sam," said Smith.

"I know Manchester United have high aspirations for him and he has already had a couple of previous loan spells at this level, so he knows what it's all about.

Ranks

"I know a lot about the lad and watched him in action recently. I've had some very positive reports on him and am delighted to be able to bring him on board until the end of the season."

Johnstone, who turns 20 on Monday, made 12 appearances on loan at Scunthorpe last season and also spent time at Oldham in 2011 although without playing.

He has progressed through the ranks at Old Trafford and has also played for the England under-16s and under-17s – winning the under-17s European Championships in 2010.

The Saddlers moved after being told on Saturday that McCarey would be recalled.

Ikeme broke his hand punching a tactics board at half- time after his gaffe gifted Bristol City the lead in Wolves' 2-1 win on Saturday.

The Saddlers have used David Grof and loaned Karl Darlow, Ian McLoughlin and McCarey this season.

Record appearance holder Jimmy Walker was released in February after struggling to regain fitness after injury.

Rookies Liam Roberts and Richard Jones – who are yet to make a first-team appearance – were the only recognised keepers left.

Smith said of McCarey: "He did a tremendous job for us. He settled quickly back into the side and has played his part in the run that we are on."

Draw is thanks to Gladwin's late strike

Junior football

Heath Hayes U9 1
Rugeley Rangers U9 1

A LAST-MINUTE strike from Alfie Gladwin snatched a point for Rugeley from an evenly- fought game.

Hayes took an early lead before Dec Hopwood went close for Rangers.

Rugeley were indebted to keeper Evan Downes for some fine stops, including his best of the season, to keep Hayes at bay.

In the last minute, Liam O'Neill's throw-in was flicked on by the hard-working Hopwood and finished adroitly by Gladwin.

Heath Hayes U15 4
Burntwood Dragons U15 1

With only three top division sides left in the Lichfield League consolation shield, relegation-threatened Heath Hayes hope to salvage something from their season. The Division Three visitors took the lead, but Hayes hit back for a confidence-boosting win with goals from Jack Smith, Ben Blakeley, Connor Ryan and Jack Connolly.

Lakeside U9 4
Eccleshall Eagles Gold U9 2

A curler to the top corner from Sam Knapton wrapped up the game – and Lakeside wrapped up the Mid-Staffs Preliminary League title in their first competitive season.

Alfie Mantle added to his goal tally while Reiss Walters scored twice on a day when all the Lakeside players shone.

Jake Cartwright was their player of the match as Lakeside stayed unbeaten with 21 wins and a draw from their league fixtures so far.

Hawkins Sports U11 3
Lane Head Trojans U11 2

Two goals in four minutes midway through the second half helped Hawkins spring a surprise in the RN Crutchley Cup semi-final.

Lane Head, top of the league and beaten only once this season, scored in the first minute with a header from a corner.

Both teams had opportunities, but it was Hawkins who netted when Connor Farmer finished off a fine cross by Carter Shelley.

Lane Head regained the lead just before half-time, but two quickfire goals turned the game on its head.

Carter Shelley let fly to find the top corner and Farmer got his second goal following some fine build-up play.

Chasetown won at Stamford but lost at home to King's Lynn. Left, Daniel Jacob hits the Lynn winner; centre, Simon Brown on the ball; right, goal celebrations at Stamford

Red cards, penalties and a Scholars' win

Stamford 1 Chasetown 2

CHASETOWN were deserved winners in Lincolnshire on Saturday, completing the double over second-placed Stamford in Evo-Stik Division One South.

The penalty areas and surrounds were bobbly in places and caused the two most note-worthy incidents in an otherwise fairly dour first period, writes Paul Mullins.

Chasetown FC

In the 14th minute, a Danny Smith shot straight at goalkeeper Matt Finlay almost caused embarrassment for the home keeper as the ball struck a huge divot in front of him. But he readjusted quickly to gather the ball above his head while falling to the ground.

Danny Bragoli had two efforts narrowly over the crossbar before Chasetown's best chance came in an inexplicable sixth minute of first-half stoppage time.

Chopped

Smith was put clean through but the ball bobbled before he hit it and he skied the shot well off-target.

Within 60 seconds of the re-start, Smith was chopped down in the penalty area and the referee had no hesitation pointing to the spot. Simon Brown scored.

The thickness of the post deprived Chasetown of a 2-0 lead when Jono Gould's shot left Finlay stranded but struck the inside of the woodwork.

Stamford levelled when a free-kick led to a Stamford corner. Substitute Sean Wright met the corner and Brown just failed to cleared the ball of the line. Wright climbed all over Nick Wellecomme inside the penalty area and the Scholars earned their second penalty and Wright was given a straight red card when he spoke to the referee.

Brown stepped up again but this time Finlay palmed his spot-kick onto the inside of the post and then made a second stop from Bragoil's follow-up.

Gould joined Brown and Lee Butler in the referee's notebook for Chasetown in a second half littered with niggling fouls.

Wellecomme was inches wide with Chasetown looking more likely to net the winner against the 10 men.

Ten became nine when Stamford full-back Jack McGovern conceded a free-kick and was dismissed for something he said.

After a delay, substitute Paul Sullivan's flicked header looked goalbound but skipper Richard Teesdale made sure, heading home virtually on the goal-line.

Sponsor comes out fighting for boxing club

NEW boxing sponsor Chris Evans is taking his commitment to Great Wyrley ABC seriously – he is going to get in the ring to fight.

The managing director of Cannock-based James Evans Financial Services has been turning up at the club for the past eight months.

Now the firm are backing the club by buying equipment – and Evans will put it to good use by boxing at Great Wyrley's exhibition day on June 9. Head coach Pete Hickenbottom said: "In this day and age, getting sponsors is very hard so this is a marvellous gesture by Chris and his team.

"Boxing equipment is very expensive, as any boxing club in the country will tell you.

"As we are a self-funding club, sometimes we are patching broken equipment up left, right and centre. Instead of a cash injection, they are going to buy equipment for the club which is better for us by far.

"Hopefully this will be a long-term agreement for us, so I'll have to be careful who we put Chris in the ring with on June 9.

"Don't want to lose our sponsor as soon as we've got one!"

Details on the firm are at www.jamesevansfs.co.uk

Jamie is a Rock as Farm gain revenge

Junior football

Church Farm U9 2
Sportsco Harriers U9 1

A 100 per cent turnaround in performance by Church Farm made amends for their defeat against Sportsco the previous week.

Church Farm took the lead in the first half through a Jamie Rock free-kick and doubled the advantage when a shot by the same player deflected in off a Sportsco defender.

Sportsco scored midway through the second half and piled on the pressure, but Farm absorbed it well with Rock and Thomas Mayne sharing the player of the match award.

Rugeley Rangers Lions U9 6
Boley Park U9 0

Two goals each for Jake Poole, Harry Smart and Billy Mackenzie kept up the title charge for the Lions, who closed the gap to Chasetown at the top.

Good performances from Rad Knight, Thomas Hurst, Seb Mitchell and player of the match Will Burns meant keeper Dan Walton enjoyed a quiet game.

Brereton Town U10 3
Red Star Sharks U10 0

Jamie Speed's hat-trick gave Brereton victory as Callum Richards captained a full side to their first clean sheet. Owen Jellyman was player of the match for some fine defending in a good team performance.

Running rugby sees tries galore

Lichfield 62 Northwich 14

LICHFIELD fully exploited a good pitch made for running rugby.

Northwich conceded a penalty in front of their posts and Greg Massey converted. A line-out saw Tom Adams break the line to find Ollie Winter on his shoulder to score under the posts. Massey's kick made it 10-0.

Lichfield replied to a Northwich try with ones from Paul Maxwell-Keys, Rich Burton, Dan Rowlands and Brad Rowlands.

Lichfield added second-half tries from Massey, Will Cotterhill and Maxwell-Keys before a Northwich converted try. Their game last Saturday was postponed.

Late goal leaves Cannock floored

Cannock 2 East Grinstead 3

CANNOCK face a huge task to qualify for the English Hockey League play-offs after this home defeat.

They host Canterbury on Sunday (2.30pm), their last league match of the season, needing both a four-goal win and a victory for Beeston over Reading.

Cannock's penultimate match provided a disappointing end to a fine performance.

An open game with lots of turnovers saw Cannock give the ball away cheaply in midfield and fall behind.

They then had the better of the game and levelled when Nick Bandurak found himself some space in the D and drove the ball high into the net.

In the second half Cannock dominated, but missed four gilt-edged chances although Dan Coultas eventually put them back in front from a penalty corner.

However, another cheap turnover allowed Ashley Jackson to equalise.

Both teams pushed for the winner, but East Grinstead rode their luck and with five minutes to go grabbed the all-important goal through Mark Pearn.

By the end both teams had given their all, but the Cannock players were left lying on the floor, exhausted and bemoaning their profligacy in front of goal.

Mark takes off to event

RUGELEY darter Mark Hylton will be heading to Germany next weekend to play in the PDC's next European Tour event after nabbing a place through the qualifiers.

Hylton won board 15 in Saturday's last qualifier and has already been matched with Joe Cullen in Sindelfingen, Germany, on March 30.

'Mile High' – a former airline cabin crew manager – saw off Mark Jones, from Brierley Hill, 6-2 in the first round of the qualifier.

The 46-year-old then recorded successive 6-1 wins against Lee Hayes and Andy Relf to seal his spot.

Hylton didn't far as well in the Saturday and Sunday UK Open qualifiers, first losing 6-3 to Alex Roy.

He reached the second round on Sunday, beating Dave Ladley 6-3, before losing 6-2 to eventual winner Robert Thornton.

Quartet shine in trials

Football

FOUR Hednesford Town footballing girls have joined the county set.

They have has successfully won their way through a series of three trials to be picked for the Staffordshire county under-14 girls football squad. The four are among 16 players to make the cut, drawn from no fewer than 80 trialists.

Right-midfielder Jodie Wilding, goalkeeper Hollie Nelson and centre-midfielder Ria Elsmore all attend Staffordshire University Academy, located at Hednesford.

Right-wing Paighton Robathan studies at Landau Forte Academy, Tamworth.

The girls have been playing football together for several years, having started out in the sport by treating it as a fun playground activity.

They have, on average, three seasons' experience playing for Hednesford Town with an unbeaten record.

They also feature for boys and girls school teams.

Each of the four practises and trains for several hours a week, supported by their respective parents as well as friends and other family.

HOME DEFEAT HITS CHAMPION CHASE

HEDNESFORD TOWN'S title hopes took a huge dent as they suffered a 3-2 home loss against Evo-Stik Northern Premier League leaders North Ferriby United.

The result created a nine-point gap between Town and the Yorkshire side in the process, writes Scott Smith.

On a sodden day Ferriby were quickest out of the blocks as they took the lead after just six minutes.

Hednesford were caught in possession in midfield and as Anthony Wilson strode forward down the right his cross was tapped home by Ryan Kendall at the back post.

Hednesford Town

It took Town some time to come into the game and the closest they came to equalising was when Neil Harvey's back header hit the crossbar.

Meanwhile, at the other end Kendall should really have doubled the lead in the 26th minute but he blazed wide with the goal at his mercy.

Crucial

Seven minutes before the half-time whistle striker Wilson was fortunate to stay on the pitch as, following a free-kick into the Hednesford penalty area, he lunged two-footed at goalkeeper Dan Crane, for which he was only handed a yellow card.

As the rain continued to lash down, Hednesford were unlucky not to be awarded a penalty early in the second period when officials missed a clear handball in the Ferriby box.

It would be a crucial decision as, seconds later, Ferriby broke forward to double their lead with Ryan Williams' cross being superbly headed home by Anthoy Wilson in the 52nd minute.

Hednesford were able to find a way back into the game on the hour mark when a mix-up in the Ferriby defence allowed Harvey to poke the ball over United goalkeeper Adam Nicklin and into the net.

On 68 minutes Town almost levelled as Nathan Woolfe cut inside and his curling effort was somehow finger tipped around the post by Nicklin.

From the corner United skipper Paul Foot headed a goal-bound shot over the bar.

They turned out to be a crucial save as on 78 minutes Ferriby made it 3-1.

Wilson was too quick for Francino Francis as he powered his way through the Hednesford backline and slid the ball past Crane.

The game then entered something of a lull and was seemingly drifting out into a comfortable victory for the visitors until Aaron Rey was brought down in the penalty area in the 87th minute.

Up stepped Elliott Durrell to drill home from the spot and bring his side back into contention.

Although there was plenty of pressure in the final few minutes from the home side, Ferriby were able to stand strong and earn all three points, much to the dismay of the majority of the 906 crowd inside Keys Park.

Hednesford pile on the pressure in the home loss to North Ferriby

Elliott Durrell attempts to go round his marker

Late penalty leads to final place

Coventry Sphinx 2 Hednesford Town 3

HEDNESFORD TOWN reached the final of the Birmingham Senior Cup as a late Elliott Durrell penalty broke the hearts of Midland Alliance Coventry Sphinx.

The Pitmen should have scored at least twice in the opening 15 minutes on Monday night with Ben Bailey's close-range header was saved by Carl O'Neill before Michael Lennon deflected a shot onto the crossbar.

Following their encouraging start, The Pitmen struggled to find a passing rythym thanks largely to the strong tackling of the home side and, despite Nathan Woolfe looking a class above on the left wing, Coventry took the lead on the stroke of halftime when Kyle Rhodes converted a penalty conceded by John Disney.

Hednesford equalised when subsitute Neil Harvey ran across his marker and headed beyond the goalkeeper on 54 minutes and the away side could have taken the lead two minutes later but for a superb sprawling save by O'Neill from Dave MacPherson.

Harvey turned in an Durrell cross on 67 minutes to make the score 2-1 but straight from the kick-off The Pitmen were caught napping as Adam Billic scrambled in an equaliser.

Sphinx tried in vain for a winner until, with 89 minutes on the clock, Durrell was felled in the box and calmly converted the spot-kick for Hednesford.

Tempers became frayed in the final moments with Pitmen captain MacPherson lucky not to be sent off for a strong challenge and Coventry's James Ritson seeing red for foul and abusive language.

The Pitmen will face Sutton Coldfield Town in the final.

Linnets on song to defeat Scholars

Chasetown 0
King's Lynn Town 1

FOR the second time in three days, Chasetown were pitted against the team in second place in the Evo-Stik Northern First Division South table – but this time the Scholars were beaten.

King's Lynn came into Tuesday's match with an unbeaten run in 2013 and with Chasetown on the back of eight wins in 10 league games, it was always going to be an entertaining clash, writes Paul Mullins.

The only goal came after just four minutes. Daniel Jacob took aim from long range and fired beyond the reach of Ryan Price .

How that was the only goal was down to some resolute defending from the Linnets and goalkeeper Danny Gay in particular.

Threat

Recalled striker Paul Sullivan was inches wide of the upright with a low drive in an end-to-end first half as Chasetown battled back.

The Norfolk visitors twice threatened the Chasetown goal but it was the Scholars who posed the greater threat.

On 16 minutes, a fierce Danny Bragoli free kick was pushed aside by Gay, and on the half hour, he produced an even better save to push away Simon Brown's drive.

The second half saw Chasetown on the front foot, with the Kings Lynn defence well marshalled by skipper Richard Bunting throwing themselves in front of every Chasetown attempt at goal.

Chris Slater, subsitute Andy Westwood and Nick Wellecomme all had good efforts blocked or saved late on.
